Laboring On Wendy Simonds, Barbara Katz Rothman, Bari Meltzer Norman, 2013-10-23. Facing the polar forces of an epidemic of Cesarean sections and epidurals and home-like labor rooms, American birth is in transition. Caught between the most extreme medicalization best seen in a Cesarean section rate of nearly 30 percent and a rhetoric of women's choices and the natural women and their midwives, doulas, obstetricians, and nurses, labor on. Laboring On offers the voices of all of these practitioners, all women trying to help women as they struggle with this increasingly split vision of birth. Updating Barbara Katz Rothman's now classic In Labor, the first feminist sociological analysis of birth in the United States, Laboring On gives a comprehensive picture of the ever-changing American birth practices and often conflicting visions of birth practitioners. The authors deftly weave compelling accounts of birth work by midwives, doulas, obstetricians, and nurses into the larger sociohistorical context of health care practices and activism and offer provocative arguments about the current state of affairs and the future of birth in America Seriously, Norman!
