Salms from South Bethlehem Pamela Smith, 2012-08 This collection of 20 poems is spoken in the voice of a character named Rosa Celestina Morales a 17 year old Puerto Rican girl living in South Bethlehem Pennsylvania in the early 1970s Rosa's hopes and dreams frustrations and torments are expressed in a mix of street talk self mumbling and phrases from familiar prayers in Spanish imported from the Spanish Mass and the first 20 psalms The content is drawn from the author's own experiences during the year she lived in Rosa's neighborhood as well as from stories she heard and people she met around the neighborhood Several of these poems have appeared previously in the New York Quarterly Cimarron Review and Woman Song III This is the first time the set of 20 have been collected in book form The work is framed as a poetic memoir A prose introduction by the author and an afterword in Rosa's voice round out the series of poems and project what Rosa's life might have turned to some forty years later Godincidences! Jo-Ann Faith Richards, 2010-09 Jamaicans are destined for travel This exclamation was overheard by the author in passing and may well be true as Jamaicans may be found in many countries all over the world Godincidences is an account of travels by a Jamaican woman on a mission with her awesomely sovereign sovereignly awesome God As she shares her adventures in places like Burkina Faso Switzerland Costa Rica and Peru you may be tempted to envy unless you accept her invitation to join her as she adventures with God Godincidences actually goes beyond merely sharing Jo Ann s adventures It gives you the space to view your own life as an adventure and to document your own escapades with the awesomely Sovereign Sovereignly awesome God of the Universe The Eternal Forest Elena Sheppard, 2025-09-30 Spellbinding Booklist starred review A must read Library Journal Poetic Emma Straub This is writing as spell casting and archival longing Leslie Jamison A memoir of the Cuban diaspora that follows one family s exile from the island through a lyrical exploration of memory cultural mythology and the history of Cuban American relations History is undeniably dominated by its men but the stories Elena Sheppard was brought up on were almost always about Cuba s women everyday women whose names would be forgotten and buried along with their bones unless someone took the effort to remember them Cifuentes Cuba in the 1950s was nearly idyllic at least that s how Elena s grandparents Rosita and Gustavo Delgado remember the Eden they left When Fidel Castro seized power in 1959 Gustavo was placed on a list of political undesirables and by the end of 1960 the couple and their two daughters had fled to Florida with nothing more than five dollars and a suitcase each The Delgados were certain they would return to Cifuentes within a few months after Castro s reign had run its course But they never went back and a piece of each of their identities became frozen in that moment In 1987 Elena was the first in Gustavo and Rosita s family to be born in the United States but through the memories that lived on in her grandmother s mind Cuba became the foundation of her childhood Elena takes us inside these stories and as we travel back and forth across the narrow Florida Straits that separate Miami and Havana we also weave between past and present to discover family secrets that are on the brink of being lost to time In lyrical yet unflinching prose The Eternal Forest follows one family s exile from their homeland and in so doing it tells the larger political story of the Cuban Revolution and its diaspora Through a spellbinding blend of cultural myth historical texts and personal narrative The Eternal Forest seeks to understand the nature of inheritance how trauma and memory are passed down through generations and what it means to yearn for an island you can never fully know
