Leon B van Leeuwen

Nuns Dont Cry:

Nuns Don't Cry G. L. Graber, 2004 Nuns Don't Cry is a candid and often humorous look at Sister Anthony's life around the time of the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council in the 1960s. It answers the question asked of every ex nun: Why did you leave? The conflicts surrounding that decision result in the ultimate conflict: life versus death. The story takes the reader on the adventures that follow from the convent to a mental institution and from East Germany to Africa. Emma and Miss

Spencer Paula Sline, 2022-12-11 Nine year old Emma Cavanaugh lives with her parents in the upscale community of Glendale. She is a warm adventurous child whose love for nature sustains her as she attempts to adjust to another year in school. She has a secret that becomes too difficult to keep. Fourth grade will surprise her in ways she could not imagine. Miss Spencer is a twenty seven year old former Catholic nun who is struggling to adjust to her new life. When her dream of becoming a college professor is dashed she reluctantly accepts a fourth grade teaching position in Glendale. In spite of her personal trauma she uses her skill and core beliefs to challenge and nurture her students. In return she receives an unexpected gift that gives her hope. Emma's and Miss Spencer's voices tell a compelling story of courage, endurance and the power of love. The story is inspired by events that took place in 1972. River of Fire Helen Prejean, 2019-08-13 River of Fire is Sister Helen's story leading up to her acclaimed book Dead Man Walking. It is thought provoking, informative and inspiring. Read it and it will set your heart ablaze. Mark Shriver, author of Pilgrimage: My Search for the Real Pope Francis. The nation's foremost leader in efforts to abolish the death penalty shares the story of her growth as a spiritual leader speaks out about the challenges of the Catholic Church and shows that joy and religion are not mutually exclusive. Sister Helen Prejean's work as an activist nun campaigning to educate Americans about the inhumanity of the death penalty is known to millions worldwide. Less widely known is the evolution of her spiritual journey from praying for God to solve the world's problems to engaging full tilt in working to transform societal injustices. Sister Helen grew up in a well off Baton Rouge family that still employed black servants. She joined the Sisters of St. Joseph at the age of eighteen and was in her forties when she had an awakening that her life's work was to immerse herself in the struggle of poor people forced to live on the margins of society. Sister Helen writes about the relationships with friends, fellow nuns and mentors who have shaped her over the years. In this honest and fiercely open account she writes about her close friendship with a priest intent on marrying her that challenged her vocation in the new territory of the heart. The final page of River of Fire ends with the opening page of Dead Man Walking when she was first invited to correspond with a man on Louisiana's death row. River of Fire is a book for anyone interested in journeys of faith and spirituality, doubt and belief, and catching on fire to purpose and passion. It is a book written in accessible, luminous prose about how to live a spiritual life that is wide awake to the sufferings and creative opportunities of our world. Prejean chronicles the compelling, sometimes difficult journey to the heart of her soul and faith with wit, honesty and intelligence. A
