Remarkable Women of the Second World War Victoria Panton Bacon, 2022-06-16 They were told to hold the fort They did far more than that When the Second World War broke out the task of keeping society afloat fell on the shoulders of the women left behind Women the world over stepped into boots they'd never worn before becoming engineers labourers and intelligence experts Their houses were razed to the ground they fled their enemy occupied countries and they picked up guns to defend their homes but their stories are rarely told Remarkable Women of the Second World War is a collection of twelve of these stories all carefully gathered and retold by Victoria Panton Bacon These are the stories of Galina Russian navigator who flew on the front line for the Red Army alongside the feared Night Witches Ena an ATA engineer who didn't think much of the Spitfires and Hurricanes she worked on and Lee a Jewish girl who fled Frankfurt and arrived in Coventry on a Kindertransport train These women weren't remarkable because of high rank or status but because of their grit resilience and determination These are the tales of ordinary women who did extraordinary things Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock, 2002-08 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors R The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst, 2008 The design and manufacture of books can tell as much about a people or a culture as the ambience of its streets and the architecture of its buildings In our everyday lives books surround us even if we are among the many who never read another one after high school Their very jacket design asks us to make meaning of their presence and when we open them the layout of words and stories within their covers makes us readers even before we begin to read To Robert Bringhurst typographer poet and writer the presence of books and the story of books in Canada are preludes to understanding our culture From the tattered book of Canadian poetry your moody cousin carried everywhere to the pristine hardcover book of Atwood s latest work in your brainy co worker s hands book design says much about who and where we are as Canadians In The Surface of Meaning Robert Bringhurst takes us on another of his walking tours this time through the bramble of English and French Canadian books and book design from the mid 18th Century to the present day Along the way he discovers a true image trove of identity culture and history And he does what no other work on books and publications does He creates a truly national survey of Canadian books by bringing Canada s long history of Aboriginal story telling into a context of book It is a context that goes into the depths of our prehistory far beyond the printed page The Surface of Meaning is a tribute to Canadian books and publishing It is irresistible to readers who love books as well as to designers and others who may simply prefer to look at them Always Someone to Kill the Doves Frederick Thomas Flahiff,2005 Crafted from archives interviews memories and bankersrsquo boxes of papers sent to the author during the years before her death Always Someone to Kill the Doves A Life of Sheila Watson is the portrait of a woman shaped by her times by her turbulent marriage by the clarity of genius and by the moral sense of her Catholic upbringing With the gentle touch of an old friend Flahiff provides a poignant insight into the woman the westerner and the writer Best known for the modernist novel The Double Hook and her part in creating the literary magazine White Pelican Watsonrsquo s life was as rich and complex as her finest literary creation
