Germany and Russia perpetrators of historical crimes today cast themselves as victims by pointing to national suffering In this theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich book Jie Hyun Lim offers a new way to understand nationalism and its political instrumentalization of suffering developing the concept of victimhood nationalism and exploring it in a range of global settings He examines relations among Poland Germany Israel Korea and Japan focusing on how memories of colonialism the Holocaust and Stalinist terror have converged and intertwined in transnational spaces With an emphasis on memory formation Lim scrutinizes how perpetrators in Germany and Japan transformed themselves into victims as well as how nationalists in Poland Korea and Israel portray themselves as hereditary victims in order to rebut external criticism He considers the construction of nations as victims and perpetrators tracing the interaction of history and memory Ultimately the book contends challenging victimhood nationalism is necessary to overcome the endless competition over national suffering and instead promote reconciliation mutual understanding and transnational solidarity
