Valuing the Field Marilyn Callahan, Sven Hessel, Susan Strega, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2000 This text provides international perspectives on examples of best practice in child welfare and proposes organizational structures and policies to support this practice Practice innovations span the range of child welfare services including prevention protection and out of family care The contributors describe the child welfare context in each of their particular jurisdictions producing an addition to the literature comparing child welfare in different countries Moreover existing books on the subject are primarily descriptive and examine overall child welfare legislation and policy The work adopts an analytical approach proposing policies and focusing on the largely unexamined topic of excellence in child welfare practice

Personality Correlates of Adolescent Stress Coping Responses Dale Alan Snow, 1995

Los desarrollos de la psicología social en España Darío Páez, Sabino Ayestarán Etxeberria, 1998

American Journal of Public Health ,1992-07 Includes section Books and reports Down from Bureaucracy Joel F. Handler,1996-04-01

Throughout the world politicians are dismantling state enterprises and heaping praise on private markets while in the United States a new rhetoric of citizen empowerment links a widespread distrust of government to decentralization and privatization Here Joel Handler asks whether this restructuring of authority really allows ordinary citizens to take more control of the things that matter in their roles as parents and children teachers and students tenants and owners producers and consumers Looking at citizens as stakeholders in the modern social welfare state created by the New Deal he traces the surprising ideological shifts of empowerment from its beginning as a cornerstone of the war on poverty in the 1960s to its central place in conservative market based voucher schemes for school reform in the 1990s Handler shows that in the past the gains from decentralization have proved to be more symbol than substance some disadvantaged members of society will find new opportunities in the changes of the 1990s but others will simply experience powerlessness under another name He carefully distinguishes empowerment by invitation in special education worker safety home health care public housing tenancy and neighborhood organizations from the empowerment by conflict exemplified by the radical decentralization of the Chicago public schools What emerges is a map of the major pitfalls and possible successes in the current journey away from a discredited regulatory state Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Community Psychology Mohamed Seedat,2001

This introduction to community psychology is the culmination of extensive research and takes a look at the contribution of psychology up to this point in South Africa s democracy It also looks at the theories and practices of community psychology in other countries such as Australia and the United States Interconnectedness and the Individual Nicole S.

Porter,Nancy Bothne,Leonard Jason,2009 This book addresses manifestations and consequences of the concept of the Self from Nativism Taking an historical perspective an attempt is made to offer a dynamic systems perspective and to describe an alternative utilising examples from Social Darwinism genetics fetal development brain plasticity and the education system to the international human rights movement Doing this the authors call into question the goal of respecting all values and behaviours in a given society Arguing against moral relativism the authors propose the necessity for foundational values that arguably already govern Community Psychology American Book Publishing Record ,1992 Handbook of Community

Psychology Julian Rappaport,Edward Seidman,2000-05-31 This comprehensive handbook the first in its field brings together 106 different contributors The 38 interrelated but at the same time independent chapters discuss key areas including conceptual frameworks empirically grounded constructs intervention strategies and tactics social systems designs assessment and analysis cross cutting professional issues and contemporary intersections with related fields such as violence prevention and HIV AIDS Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19): Psychological, Behavioral, Interpersonal Effects, and
