Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture. It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field. The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics, themes, genres, schools, historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies. The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism, film, media, children's literature, food and vernacular literatures. Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person. It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars.

Primo Levi Lucie Benchouih, 2006 As one of the best known survivors of the concentration camps, Primo Levi's testimony to his experiences in Auschwitz is internationally recognised as one of the most significant works of the last century. This volume examines each of Levi's works in detail, assessing and analysing the influence of Levi's time in Auschwitz on his writing. It identifies a variety of thematic, temporal, stylistic and linguistic echoes of Levi's concentration camp testimony and traces these echoes throughout his subsequent, apparently unrelated work. The book provides original and fascinating insights into the works of this remarkable writer, giving readers a new understanding and perspective on the immense significance and the pervasive influence of the Holocaust on Levi's creative output.

Primo Levi Judith Kelly, 2000-01-01 Judith Kelly looks at Levi's work in the context of testimonial literature and examines the linguistic expression of the author's Auschwitz experience. The moral and philosophical nature of humanity within the camp is investigated. In particular, there is a comparison between If This is Man and a co-authored medico-scientific report and a consideration of sources and motifs which provide the cultural framework for the author's expression of his experiences.

Italian Studies, 2005 Includes the sections: Reviews, Italian studies published in England, Accademia and A chronicle of public lectures etc.

Narrative and Imperative Risa B. Sodi, 2007 Narrative Imperative is the first book in English on Italian Holocaust writing as a whole. Risa Sodi explores the work of eight representative authors, including the internationally famous Primo Levi, Giorgio Bassani and Elsa Morante, and the lesser known Giacomo Debenedetti, Paolo Maurensig, Liana Millu, Bruno Piazza and Giuliana Tedeschi. She examines issues of genre, language, gender and facticity while situating the works studied within the fields of European and Holocaust letters. A brief history of the Italian Jews, the oldest Jewish community in Europe, opens the book and the conclusion brings the study up to recent times.

Holocaust Studies, 2006 Humiliation, Degradation, Dehumanization Paulus Kaufmann, Hannes Kuch, Christian Neuhaeuser, Elaine Webster, 2010-10-07 Degradation, dehumanization, instrumentalization, humiliation and nonrecognition: these concepts point to ways in which we understand human beings to be violated in their dignity Violations of human dignity are brought about by concrete practices and conditions some commonly acknowledged such as torture and rape and others more contested such as poverty and exclusion This volume collates reflections on such concepts and a range of practices deepening our understanding of human dignity and its violation bringing to the surface interrelationships and commonalities and pointing to the values that are thereby shown to be in danger In presenting a streamlined discussion from a negative perspective complemented by conclusions for a positive account of human dignity the book is at once a contribution to the body of literature on what dignity is and how it should be protected as well as constituting an alternative fresh and focused perspective relevant to this significant recurring debate As the concept of human dignity itself crosses disciplinary boundaries this is mirrored in the unique range of perspectives brought by the book s European and American contributors in philosophy and ethics law human rights literature cultural studies and interdisciplinary research This volume will be of interest to social and moral philosophers legal and human rights theorists practitioners and students Kafka's Italian Progeny Saskia Elizabeth Ziolkowski, 2020-01-06 This book explores Kafka s sometimes surprising connections with key Italian writers from Italo Calvino to Elena Ferrante who shaped Italy s modern literary landscape Translation, Globalization and Translocation Concepción B. Godev, 2017-09-07 This book examines the spaces where translation and globalization intersect whether they be classrooms communities or cultural texts It foregrounds the connections between cultural analysis literary critique pedagogy and practice uniting the disparate fields that operate within translation studies In doing so it offers fresh perspectives that will encourage the reader to reappraise translation studies as a field reaffirming the directions that the subject has taken over the last twenty years Offering a comprehensive analysis of the links between translation and globalization this ambitious edited collection will appeal to students and scholars who work in any area of translation studies The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Vernacular Edens Simone Marchesi, 2025-01-31 Late medieval European vernacular literature defined itself as the redeployment of classical and post classical antecedents in new cultural coordinates Many authors of narrative and poetic fiction between the twelfth and fourteenth centuries resisted the idea that moving a text from one language to another produces a loss of meaning or as today s idiom goes that something always gets lost in translation Rather they understood the process of vernacular translation as a regenerative cultural practice and often associated it with depictions of luscious and paradisaical gardens in their works Vernacular Edens presents a systematic study of a literary commonplace the representation of gardens in medieval fictions as a lens to understand the theories and practices of translation from Latin to the vernaculars The book argues that the prominent narrative space that works composed in Old French Italian and Middle English give to garden visit scenes is connected to their vindication of translation as an always enriching practice A wide range of texts from Marie de France s Lais to the Roman de la Rose from Dante s Comedy to Boccaccio s Decameron and from Petrarch s Griselda to Chaucer's Clerk's and Merchant's Tales provide the body of evidence analysed in the book Beyond "Life is Beautiful" Grace Russo Bullaro, 2005-01-01 Russo Bullaro's collection focuses on Benigni's Oscar winning La vita è bella Life is Beautiful a film which has set off continuous and often bitter debate about Holocaust representation and historical consciousness. The topics covered in Russo Bullaro's collection offer insights from critics around the world in a forum for the consideration of the wider issues that Benigni's films provoke. Diasporas of the Mind Bryan Cheyette, 2014-02-28 In this fascinating and erudite book Bryan Cheyette throws new light on a wide range of modern and contemporary writers some at the heart of the canon others more marginal to explore the power and limitations of the diasporic imagination after the Second World War. Moving from early responses to the death camps and decolonization through internationally prominent literature after the Second World War the book culminates in fresh engagements with contemporary Jewish post ethnic and postcolonial writers. div DIV Cheyette regards many of the twentieth and twenty first century luminaries he examines among them Hannah Arendt Anita Desai Frantz Fanon Albert Memmi Primo Levi Caryl Phillips Philip Roth Salman Rushdie Edward Said Zadie Smith and Muriel Spark as critical exemplars of the diasporic imagination. Against the discrete disciplinary thinking of the academy he elaborates and argues for a new comparative approach across Jewish and postcolonial histories and literatures. And in so doing Cheyette illuminates the ways in which histories and cultures can be imagined across national and communal boundaries. DIV MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures, 2007

The Memory of the Offence Judith Woolf, 2001 In this study of Primo Levi's If This is a Man Se questo un uomo the author tries to give some sense of the historical and cultural context not just of Levi's book but also of the events which gave rise to it since it is to those events that Levi is directing us. For the same reason suggestions for further reading mainly concentrate on history. While looking at some of the many literary influences on Levi's book particularly that of Dante's Inferno this book also places it in the literature of survivor accounts. The author has drawn widely on Levi's other writings both because If This is a Man has to be seen as the beginning of a lifetime's endeavour and because in the absence of a definitive body of criticism Levi remains the best explicator of his own work. This book is intended both for the student of Italian and for the general reader. All quotations from If This is a Man and all verse quotations are given both in Italian and in English while all other quotations from Italian texts are given in English. Natalia Ginzburg Nadia Castronuovo, 2010 This book explores Ginzburg's Jewishness in her autobiographical writings and traces the shift in her self representation. It brings together substantial historical background on the period surrounding the Racial Laws when Natalia Ginzburg and other Italian Jews were forced to confront the significance of their Jewishness. It highlights the reactions by Jews and non Jews to the growing anti-Semitism of the times. In this context moral identity is also discussed as a facet of Primo Levi and Giorgio Bassani's Jewish identity. Dante Alive Francesco Ciabattini, Simone Marchesi, 2022-09-30 The essays collected here join in and contribute to the current reflection on Dante's vitality today in a critical multidisciplinary vein. Their intervention comes at a particularly sensitive juncture in the history of Dante's global reception and cultural reuse Dante today is as alive as ever A cultural icon no less than a cultural product Dante's imaginative universe enjoys a pervasive presence in popular culture The multiformity of approaches represented in the collection matches the variety of the material that is analyzed The volume documents Dante's presence in genres as different as graphic novels and theater productions children's literature advertisements and sci-fi narratives rock and rap music video and boardgames satirical vignettes and political speeches school curricula and prison teaching initiatives Each chapter combines a focused attention to the specificity of the body of evidence it treats with best analytical practices The volume invites collective reflection on the many different rules of engagement with Dante's text

The Document Within the Walls Guia Risari, 1999 Giorgio Bassani is an Italian Jewish writer from Ferrara famous largely for The Garden of the Finzi Contini The Golden Rimmed Eye Glasses and other novels brought together in Il Romanzo di Ferrara 1980 In this monumental work Bassani describes the life of the Italian Jews under Fascism Bassani may be seen as not just a fictional writer but as a witness of persecution of Jews under Fascism his Romance is not so much a novel but a multifaceted document on Jewish life in the peninsular This volume takes into account a close reading of Bassani's literary theories on witnessing the Shoah and the historical debate on Italian discriminatory politics The book is thus both literary criticism and an analysis of anti-Semitism and Jewish assimilation in Italy
