Gender, Nation, and the Arabic Novel Hoda Elsadda, 2012-07-18 A nuanced understanding of literary imaginings of masculinity and femininity in the Egyptian novel Gender studies in Arabic literature have become equated with women's writing leaving aside the possibility of a radical rethinking of the Arabic literary canon and Arab cultural history While the woman question in the Arabic novel has received considerable attention the male question has gone largely unnoticed Now Hoda Elsadda bucks that trend Foregrounding voices that have been marginalised alongside canonical works she engages with new directions in the novel tradition Politics of Nostalgia in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2013-01-31 Explores the work of novelists including Naguib Mahfouz Abd al Khaliq al Rikabi Jamal al Ghitani Ben Salem Himmich Ali Mubarak Adonis Mahmoud Darwish and Nizar Qabbani to show how the development of the Arabic novel has created a politics of nostal Religion, My Own Mattityahu Peled, 2018-04-17 The Egyptian writer Najib Mahfuz has been acclaimed by many Arab critics as the greatest living Arabic literary writer and one of the pioneers of social criticism in literature in Egypt This work the only major book length study of Mahfuz's work traces his literary development as a writer and analyzes the thematic aspect of his work the relationship between individual and society Mahfuz's method of presenting this relationship in his novels and short stories is studied within the context of his Islamic world view Mahfuz's writing follows the models set by modern Western literature His unique contribution to Egyptian literature is that he made the novel and the short story a means of exploring indigenous problems Egyptian writers who preceded him paved the way for his achievements but none reached his mastery He enabled the Egyptian genius to express itself in literary forms new to Arabic Literary tradition The literary career of Mahfuz is marked by three distinct phases The first is the Pharaonic phase 1935-38 in which three historical novels were written The second is the realistic phase 1938-52 in which most of his great works were written including the Cairo trilogy The third phase began after a pause of six years in 1958 and is distinguished by symbolic writings and a deep concern for the individual in a changing society

Arab and Regional Politics in the Middle East P.J. Vatikiotis, 2015-07-24 Three main themes are explored in this book first published in 1984 the first is the problem of religion and politics as a major and long standing preoccupation of Middle easterners or Arab Muslims themselves the second is that of the conflict ridden inter Arab and regional politics approached largely from a local rather than an international perspective the third deals with Egypt The book also enquires into the nature of rule and regimes in the Middle East the basis of authority and the arrangements for the organisation exercise and use of power Drawing examples from Egypt and the Fertile Crescent the emphasis is on the relation between tradition and politics historical evolution and state policy domestic factors and external constraints

Poetics of Love in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2012-06-20 Considers the Arabic novel within the triangle of the nation state modernity and tradition The novel is now a major genre in the Arabic literary field this book explores the development of the novel especially the ways in which the genre engages with a

The Politics of Love Rebecca Joubin, 2013-10-03 Dramatic miniseries are the primary arena for the expression of postcolonial Syrian culture and artistic talent an arena that unites diverse aspects of artisanship in a struggle over visions of the past present and future of the nation As the tour de force of the television medium blossoming amidst persisting authoritarianism these miniseries serve as a crucial and complex artistic avenue through which political and social opposition manifests Scholars have tried to come to terms with a highly critical culture produced within attempted state co optation and argue that politically critical culture operates as a safety valve to release frustrations so that dissenters are less likely to mobilize against the government Through research fueled by a viewing of over two hundred and fifty miniseries ranging from the 1960s to the present as well as an examination of hundreds of press reports Facebook pages and extensive interviews with drama creators this book turns away from the dominant paradigm that focuses on regime intent When turning attention instead to the drama creators themselves we witness the polyphony of voices employing love and marriage metaphors and gender de constructions to explore larger issues of nationalism self identity and political critique At the heart of constructions of femininity are the complications that arise with the symbiosis of pure femininity with authentic national identity Deconstructing masculinity as political critique has been less complicated since it is not implicated in Western identity issues on the contrary illustrations of subservient masculinity serve to subtly denounce government corruption and oppression Miniseries from the 1960s demonstrate that the focus of the qabaday tough man on female sexuality comes from his own political alienation vis vis the state and is part of a vicious cycle of state violence vis vis the citizen In recent years and in particular after the uprising we can see the emerging definition of the true qabaday as one who does not suppress a woman s sexuality thereby allowing for full equality in relationships as the basis of a truly free society
