Ramsey, 2014-02-01 This account of the settlement of one segment of the North Carolina frontier the land between the Yadkin and Catawba rivers examines the process by which the piedmont South was populated Through its ingenious use of hundreds of sources and documents Robert Ramsey traces the movement of the original settlers and their families from the time they stepped onto American shores to their final settlement in the northwest Carolina territory He considers the economic religious social and geographical influences that led the settlers to Rowan County and describes how this frontier community was organized and supervised      Reformed Church Messenger ,1908

Everton's Genealogical Helper ,1999-07      Quaker Arrivals at Philadelphia 1682-1750 Albert Cook Myers, 2018-01-03 Excerpt from Quaker Arrivals at Philadelphia 1682 1750 Being a List of Certificates of Removal Received at Philadelphia Monthly Meeting of Friends The following list of certificates Of removal now printed for the first time will be of value it is believed not only to genealogists but to historians in the broader sense interested in investigating the early migratory movement to Penn's Colony As the metropolis of the new Province on the Delaware Philadelphia became better known abroad than any other part of Pennsylvania and a large proportion of the steady stream of Quaker colonists which poured into the Province made this city its objective point. Of the nineteen monthly meetings established in Pennsylvania prior to 1750 as the writer's investigation of the manuscript records has shown Philadelphia Monthly Meeting easily ranks first as to the number of certificates received.
