Raf Bomber Units 1939 4:

Tracing Your Air Force Ancestors Phil Tomaselli, 2007-07-19 Whether you are interested in the career of an individual air man or woman researching medals awarded to a pilot or crew member or just want to know more about a particular squadron or operation this book will point you in the right direction Assuming that the reader has no prior knowledge of the air force its history or organization Phil Tomaselli explains which records survive where they can be found and how they can help you in your research He also recommends resources available online as well as books and memoirs Each era in air force history is described from the pioneering days of early aviation and the formation of the Royal Flying Corps in the First World War to the creation of the Royal Air Force its operations during the Second World War and its postwar development The author explains the evolving organization of the air force in each period He also provides pointers and examples which should help researchers find the records of units and bases that individuals served in A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945 Christopher Shores, Giovanni Massimello, Russell Guest, 2012-06-19 This first volume in the seminal series on World War II aerial combat pilots and tactics that reads like an encyclopedia on the subject Portland Book Review In the early days of World War II both Allied and Axis powers extended the theater of war to North Africa where hard fought battles were conducted in the harsh desert But before anyone could claim victory on the ground they had to hold dominion in the air Here historian Christopher Shores has combined his books Fighters over the Desert and Fighters over Tunisia into one volume as well as adding updated information about the deadly fighter aircraft reconnaissance aircraft and maritime units active in the Mediterranean Full of in depth research and featuring essential maps this is an intimate introspection by these men of their experiences and the respect that they shared not only for each other but also their adversaries The Military Reviewer A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945. Volume 2 Christopher Shores, Giovanni Massimello, Russell Guest, Frank Olynyk, Winfried Bock, 2014-07-19 This second volume in the seminal series on aerial combat pilots and tactics in Libya and Egypt in the middle of World War II In volume two of this series historian Christopher Shores begins by exploring the 8th Army's movements after Operation Crusader when they were forced back to the Gazala area in northeastern Libya as well as their defeat in June 1942 the loss of Tobruk and the efforts of Allied air forces to protect their retreating troops Shores continues with the heavy fighting that followed in the El Alamein region This features the Western Desert Air Force and the arrival of the first Spitfires The buildup of both army and air forces and the addition of new commanders on the ground aided the defeat of Rommel's Deutsche Afrika Korps at Alam el Halfa after which came the Second Battle of El Alamein With the arrival of the United States Army Air Force the Allied air forces gained dominance over the Axis Shores recounts the lengthy pursuit of the Italo German forces right across Libya including the capture of Tripoli and the breakthrough into Southern Tunisia This allowed a linkup with other Allied forces in Tunisia whose story appears in Volume 3 Included with the action are stories of some of the great fighter aces of the Desert campaign such as Jochen Marseille and

Otto Schulz of the Luftwaffe Franco Bordoni Bisleri of the Regia Aeronautica and Neville Duke Billy Drake and Eddie Edwards of the Commonwealth air forces Finally Shores touches on the Allied and Axis night bombing offensives and the activities of the squadrons cooperating with the naval forces in the Mediterranean Vickers Wellington Units of Bomber Command Michael Napier,2020-07-23 The Vickers Wellington was one of very few aircraft types to have been in production and frontline service throughout World War II and more than 10 000 Wellingtons were built in the period They took part in the first RAF bombing mission of the conflict when on 4 September 1939 14 examples from Nos 9 and 149 Sqns undertook a daring daylight attack on the Kiel Canal However after suffering high losses on follow up raids Wellingtons were withdrawn from daytime missions and began to operate at night from May 1940 They subsequently took part in raids against the Italian port city of Genoa in July 1940 and against Berlin the following month followed by key missions in the Battle of the Barges in September and October as the RAF targeted the Germany s invasion fleet being assembled in French Channel ports When RAF s strike force expanded the next year following the introduction of the improved Wellington II the 21 squadrons equipped with the Vickers aircraft which included Polish Canadian and Australian manned units formed the backbone of the Bomber Command night bombing force Over the next two years Wellingtons participated in all the major operations by Bomber Command including the daylight raid against German battleships in Brest harbour in July 1942 and the first three Thousand Bomber raids in the summer of 1942 This illustrated study explores the design development and deployment of the Vickers Wellington type charting its role in World War II from its earliest missions to its use in training after its withdrawal from frontline bomber missions in 1943 The text is supported by stunning full colour artwork Bomber Squadrons of the R.A.F. and Their Aircraft Philip J. R. Moyes,1964 Illustrated record of British Royal Air Force squadrons formed since the First World War including those formed from Allied and Dominions personnel Aircraft Wrecks: The Walker's Guide Alan Clark,Nick Wotherspoon,Mark Sheldon,2009-09-19 This book gives readers a direct link to crash sites that can be visited with accurate grid references site description and current photographs It covers some 450 selected sites with emphasis given to those on open access land The areas covered are Southern England Dartmoor and Exmoor 20 entries Wales 120 entries Isle of Man 20 entries Peak District 75 entries Yorkshire Moors Eastern 20 entries Lake District 25 entriesPennines East Lancashire West Yorkshire Scotland Central and Southern 30 entriesScotland Highlands Islands Ireland 20 entries Each area includes a preamble describing the local geography and historical notes Individual site entries include exact location details of the aircraft and crew and the circumstances of the loss The Wellington Bomber Martin W. Bowman,2020-01-31 The Wellington Bomber was omnipresent during the Second World War employed in a variety of contexts in the fight against the Axis powers The pilots who flew this aircraft did so with an immense amount of pride and there is perhaps no one better placed to tell the story of this incredible aircraft than these men Martin Bowman has drawn together a selection of first hand pilot testimonies in an effort to record authentically the experience of flying the much mythologised Wellington during one of the most challenging eras of aviation history The book is supplemented by two plate sections of stirring black and white images      The History of Air Intercept Radar & the British Nightfighter 1935-1959 Ian White, 2007-05-30 This detailed history of Air Intercept radar traces the development of this vital military technology with the Royal Air Force during WWII In the years after World War I the United Kingdom was desperate to develop some form of protection from an enemy air strike As early as 1923 the British Army had devised sound mirrors that could detect aircraft up to twelve miles away This technical history traces the development of military radar technology from this early experimental phase to the creation of the first air to air radar systems and their uses in battle Historian Ian White sets this fascinating narrative within the larger political military economic and technological context of the era Through World War II Air Intercept radar was a vital asset in protecting RAF bomber forces as well as the country itself But developing the technology required the tireless work of physicists and engineers in the Air Ministry Research Establishment particularly members of the Establishment's Airborne Group working under Dr Edward Bowen Their Airborne Interception radars such as the AI Mk IV were used in Blenheim night fighters during the winter Blitz and by Mosquito during the Baedeker Raids This in depth history covers the introduction of centimetric technology at the Telecommunications Research Establishment the creation of centimetric AI and their installation in the Beaufighter and later marks of the Mosquito It describes the creation of the Radiation Laboratory at MIT and concludes with a section on further developments during the Cold War      Spanish Civil War Air Forces Christopher Shores, 1977-07-15 This book traces the combat history of the air forces that fought in the Spanish Civil War Major aircraft types are all covered and their missions including major operations at Brunete Belchite and the Ebro are all detailed Aircraft markings and aircrew uniforms are shown in full colour illustrations      The Royal Air Force Michael Napier, 2018-02-22 A fully illustrated history of the Royal Air Force while on operations publishing to mark the centenary of its foundation in World War I The world's first independent air force the Royal Air Force celebrates its centenary in 2018 In the 100 years since the end of World War I the service has been involved in almost continuous operations around the globe giving the RAF the longest and most wide ranging history of any air force in the world But over the years this history has also become entangled with myths The Royal Air Force A Centenary of Operations sets the record straight dispelling these as it uncovers in both words and photographs the true exploits and accomplishments of RAF personnel over the last 100 years From its formation as an independent service in the dying days of World War I its desperate fight against the Axis air forces in World War II to its commitments during both the Cold War and modern times this is the complete story of how the RAF has defended Britain for a century
