Rage For Rock Gardening The Story Of Reginald Farrer Gardener Writer And Plant Collector:

A Rage for Rock Gardening Nicola Shulman, 2011-06-01 A new edition of Nicola Shulman's miniature masterpiece about the life of gardener Reginald Farrer A hundred years ago there was a revolution in British gardening as the garden changed from being a diversion of dukes to the hobby of millions Few figures were more prominent in this renaissance than Reginald Farrer whose passion for alpine plants the most demanding of plants would inspire generations with a love of flowers He was the man who put a rockery in every back garden Tormented by physical and emotional misfortune Farrer was one of those born to endless night Yet in the realm of horticulture his many faults were turned to advantages and he became one of the great plant hunters collecting new species from the mountains of Tibet and China Through the influence of his extraordinary books Farrer did for English gardening what half a century later Elizabeth David would do for its cookery changing everything forever

Global Ecologies and the Environmental Humanities

Elizabeth DeLoughrey, Jill Didur, Anthony Carrigan, 2015-04-10 This book examines current trends in scholarly thinking about the new field of the Environmental Humanities focusing in particular on how the history of globalization and imperialism represents a special challenge to the representation of environmental issues Essays in this path breaking collection examine the role that narrative visual and aesthetic forms can play in drawing attention to and shaping our ideas about long term and catastrophic environmental challenges such as climate change militarism deforestation the pollution and management of the global commons petroculturalism and the commodification of nature The volume presents a postcolonial approach to the environmental humanities especially in conjunction with current thinking in areas such as political ecology and environmental justice Spanning regions such as Africa Asia Eastern Europe Latin America and the Caribbean Australasia and the Pacific as well as North America the volume includes essays by founding figures in the field as well as new scholars providing vital new interdisciplinary perspectives on the politics of the earth disaster vulnerability and resilience political ecologies and environmental justice world ecologies and the Anthropocene In engaging critical ecologies the volume poses a postcolonial environmental humanities for the twenty first century At the heart of this is a conviction that a thoroughly global postcolonial and comparative approach is essential to defining the emergent field of the environmental humanities and that this field has much to offer in understanding critical issues surrounding the creation of alternative ecological futures Jane Austen's Emma Fiona J. Stafford, 2007 Publisher description Twentieth-Century Literary Encounters in China Jeffrey Mather, 2019-10-10 From the travel writing of the eccentric plant collector and Reginald Farrer to Emily Hahn's insider depictions of bohemian life in semi colonial Shanghai to Ezra Pound's mediated journeys to Southwest China via the explorer Joseph Rock Anglo American representations of China during the first half of the twentieth century were often unconventional in terms of style form and content By examining a range of texts that were written in the flux of travel including poems novels autobiographies this study argues that the tumultuous social and political context of China's Republican Period 1912-49 was a key setting for conceptualizing cultural modernity in global and transnational terms In contrast with accounts that examine China's influence on Western modernism through language translation and discourse the book recovers a materialist engagement with landscapes objects and things as transcribed through travel ethnographic encounter and embodied experience The book is organized by three themes which suggest formal strategies through which notions cultural modernity were explored or contested borderlands cosmopolitan performances and mobile poetics As it draws from archival sources in order to develop these themes this study offers a place based historical perspective on China's changing status in Western literary cultures The Forbidden Orchid Sharon Biggs Waller, 2016-03-08 The adventures of a British girl in China hunting for the orchid that will save her family Staid responsible Elodie Buchanan is the eldest of ten sisters growing up in a small English market town in 1861 The girls barely know their father a plant hunter usually off adventuring through China more myth than man Then disaster strikes Mr Buchanan reneges on his contract to collect an extremely rare and valuable orchid He will be thrown into debtors prison while his daughters are sent to the orphanage and the workhouse Elodie can't stand by and see her family destroyed so she persuades her father to return to China once more to try to hunt down the flower only this time despite everything she knows about her place in society Elodie goes with him She has never before left her village but what starts as fear turns to wonder as she adapts to seafaring life aboard the tea clipper The Osprey and later to the new sights dangers and romance of China She comes to find that both the world and her place in it are so much bigger than she d ever dreamed But now even if she can find the orchid how can she ever go back to being the staid responsible Elodie that everybody needs Topographic Memory and Victorian Travellers in the Dolomite Mountains William Bainbridge,2025-10-01 Guided by the romantic compass of Turner Byron and Ruskin Victorian travellers to the Dolomites sketched in the mountainous backdrop of Venice a cultural Petit Tour of global significance As they zigzagged across a debatable land between Italy and Austria Victorians discovered a unique geography characterized by untrodden peaks and unfrequented valleys The discovery of this landscape blended aesthetic scientific and cultural values utterly different from those engendered by the bombastic conquests of the Western Alps achieved during the Golden Age of Mountaineering Filtered through memories of the Venetian Grand Tour the Victorian encounter with the Dolomites is revealed through a series of distinct cultural practices that paradigmatically define a Silver Age of Mountaineering This book shows how these practices are more ethnographic than imperialistic more feminine than masculine more artistic than sportive rather than racing to summits the Silver Age is about rambling rather than conquering peaks it is about sketching them in an intimate interaction with the Dolomite landscape The Buddha's Tooth John S. Strong,2021-10-22 John S Strong unravels the storm of influences shaping the received narratives of two iconic sacred objects Bodily relics such as hairs teeth fingernails pieces of bone supposedly from the Buddha himself have long served as objects of veneration for many Buddhists Unsurprisingly when Western colonial powers subjugated populations in South Asia they used manipulated redefined and even destroyed these objects to exert control In The Buddha's Tooth John S Strong examines Western stories from the sixteenth to the twentieth century surrounding two significant Sri Lankan sacred objects to illuminate and concretize colonial attitudes toward Asian religions First he analyzes a tale about the Portuguese capture and public destruction in the mid sixteenth century of a tooth later identified as a relic of the Buddha Second he switches gears to look at the nineteenth century saga of British dealings with another tooth relic of the Buddha the famous Da ad enshrined in a temple in Kandy from 1815 when it was taken over by English forces to 1954 when it was visited by Queen Elizabeth II As Strong reveals the stories of both the Portuguese tooth and the Kandyan tooth reflect nascent and developing Western understandings of Buddhism realizations of the cosmopolitan nature of the tooth and tensions between secular and religious interests
