The Redemptive Self Dan P. McAdams, 2013-02-14 In this revised and expanded edition of The Redemptive Self McAdams shows how redemptive stories promote psychological health and civic engagement among contemporary American adults

The Redemptive Self Dan P. McAdams, 2006 Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho, 2024-09-02 In Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho examines how Korean American undocumented young adults tell religious stories to cope with the violence of uncertainty and construct new meanings for themselves Based on in depth interviews guided by narrative inquiry the book follows the stories of ten Korean American DACA Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals recipients who have found their lives in limbo While many experience narrative foreclosure believing My story is over Cho highlights how telling religious stories enables them to imagine and create new stories for themselves not as shunned outsiders but as beloved children of God Narrative □ State of the Art Michael Bamberg, 2007-03-14 Narrative State of the Art which was originally published as a Special Issue of Narrative Inquiry 16 1 2006 is edited by Michael Bamberg and contains 24 chapters with a brief introduction by the editor that look back and take stock of developments in narrative theorizing and empirical work with narratives The attempt has been made to bring together researchers from different disciplines with very different concerns and have them express their conceptions of the current state of the art from their perspectives Looking back and taking stock this volume further attempts to begin to deliver answers to the questions i What was it that made the original turn to narrative so successful ii What has been accomplished over the last 40 years of narrative inquiry iii What are the future directions for narrative inquiry The contributions to this volume are deliberately kept short so that the readers can browse through them and get a feel about the diversity of current narrative theorizing and emerging new trends in narrative research It is the ultimate aim of this edited volume to stir up discussions and dialogue among narrative researchers across these disciplines and to widen and open up the territory of narrative inquiry to new and innovative work Experiencing the Lifespan Janet Belsky, 2009-10-23 This book explores the lifespan by combining research with a practicing psychologist's understanding of human development from infancy to old age Second Chances As Transformative Stories Rhd V3 2&3 Kevin M. Roy, 2015-12-22 First published in 2006 This is Volume 3 of the Official Journal of the Society for the Study of Human Development from 2006 It includes a special edition collection of articles covering second chances as transformative stories looking at the redemptive self emotion and transformational processing narrating self in the past and the future low income fathers and prison conversions and the crisis of self narrative International Perspectives on Reminiscence, Life Review and Life Story Work Faith Gibson, 2018-11-21 This book collates the latest research developments and evidence base for reminiscence life review and life story work in a single volume Charting the wide applications for narrative therapeutic methods the book emphasises the effectiveness of these approaches with varied people from different cultural backgrounds Cultural Methods in Psychology

Kate C. McLean, 2022 As I sat down to write this chapter about the use of life story methods for capturing cultural historical aspects of LGBTQ identity development I was transported back in time It was a hot summer day in 2004 I had travelled back from the big city where I was attending university to visit my family This was my first summer away from home At that moment my family and I sat in the parking lot of a diner having just finished breakfast at a local greasy spoon a ritualistic send off before I started my four hour return drive In those moments our car felt unusually cramped My dad was in the back seat with me my mom and brother in the front I didn't have much of an appetite that morning knowing that in mere minutes I would come out to my family as gay On our way out of the restaurant walking to our separate cars I somehow managed to muster up the courage to tell my family there was something important I wanted them to know So there I was in the backseat of the car with a message for my family Looking back on it the message was more like an ultimatum They could learn to love this new version of me as I had done or our routine see you later might be a goodbye This is the beginning of my story both my coming out story and in some ways my life story Thankfully my family is still an important part of this story

Varieties of Narrative Analysis James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2011-08-05 Narrative research has become increasingly popular in the social sciences While no part of the process is easy researchers often struggle to make sense of data that can seem chaotic and without a discernable pattern This book shows how to analyze stories storytelling and stories in society bringing together a variety of approaches to both texts and narrative practice under one cover

Life and Narrative Brian Schiff, A. Elizabeth McKim, Sylvie Patron, 2017 Life and Narrative examines the perennial mystery of how people encounter manage and inhabit a self and a world of their own and others creation and the ramifications of these creations From both literary and social science perspectives this volume grapples with the process of how life and narrative interact with each other
