Reflection An Experiment In Experimental Poetry And Prose

Barry Stocker, Michael Mack

Reflection An Experiment In Experimental Poetry And Prose:

Reflection Milt Lemke Jr., 2005-05-27 Through the years I've learned much from my Poetry Mentors who are many and a few I've mentioned in this book. They taught me by example that yes I too can be a Poet I too can be a member of this extraordinary extended family. A good dose of courage and risk taking is what's needed to achieve some sort of compromising end. Frankly I've learned little of this art from text books and class rooms. It's The Masters the elder Poets who are my text book and class room teaching me the refinement process of honing and polishing. Whatever course my poetry and prose might take My Tutors assure me it's a well worth the journey down every path and side path. Visiting every side show I visit and eventually discovering my style I consider my poems and prose as my children. Like their parent I want them to do their best. I've nurtured them loved them and cared for them. I've held on to them long enough. It's time they go out on their own. You may be disappointed if you fail but you are doomed if you don't try. Beverly Sills Milt Lemke Jr. A Study Guide for Virginia Woolf's "The Widow and the Parrot" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Virginia Woolf's The Widow and the Parrot excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students. Moore, Sharon Bridgforth, 2010-07-01 This book is both an anthology of writing by participants of the Austin Project and a sourcebook for those who would like to use creative writing and performance to energize their artistic scholarly and activist practices. The Palgrave Handbook of Philosophy and Literature Barry Stocker, Michael Mack, 2018-12-31 This comprehensive Handbook presents the major perspectives within philosophy and literary studies on the relations overlaps and tensions between philosophy and literature. Drawing on recent work in philosophy and literature literary theory philosophical aesthetics literature as philosophy and philosophy as literature its twenty nine chapters plus substantial Introduction and Afterword examine the ways in which philosophy and literature depend on each other and interact while also contrasting with each other in that they necessarily exclude or incorporate each other. This book establishes an enduring framework for structuring the broad themes defining the relations between philosophy and literature and organising the main topics in the field. Key Features Structured in five parts addressing philosophy as literature philosophy of literature philosophical aesthetics literary criticism and theory and main areas of work within philosophy and literature. An Introduction setting out the main concerns of the field through discussion of the major themes along with the individual topics. An Afterword looking at the interactions between philosophy and literature through itself enacting philosophical and literary writing while examining the question of how they can be brought together. The Palgrave Handbook of Philosophy and Literature is an essential resource for scholars researchers and advanced students in philosophy of literature philosophy as literature literary theory literature as philosophy and the philosophical aesthetics of literature. It is an ideal volume for researchers advanced students and scholars in philosophy literary studies philosophy and literature cultural studies classical studies and other related fields The Comparative Study of Traditional Asian Literatures Vladimir Braginsky,2013-10-11 This book represents the first ever published introduction to the comparative study of traditional Asian literatures embracing three vast literary zones Arab Islamic Indo South East Asian and Sino Far Eastern The aim of the book is to outline the main properties of Asian literatures in the period of reflective traditionalism the early centuries CE to the first half of the 19th century when the creation of a vast body of aesthetically significant works was coupled with the emergence of literary self awareness when the nature of the creative process the poetics and functions of the literary works and the ways of their influence on the reader were thoroughly comprehended and committed to writing for the first time The book is intended for specialists in Asian literatures comparative literature and literary theory and for students of these topics

Reflections and New Perspectives on Virgil's Georgics Nicholas Freer,Bobby Xinyue,2019-02-21 Virgil s Georgics the most neglected of the poet s three major works is brought to life and infused with fresh meanings in this dynamic collection of new readings The Georgics is shown to be a rich field of inherited and varied literary forms actively inviting a wide range of interpretations as well as deep reflection on its place within the tradition of didactic poetry The essays contained in this volume contributed by scholars from Australia Europe and North America offer new approaches and interpretive methods that greatly enhance our understanding of Virgil s poem In the process they unearth an array of literary and philosophical sources which exerted a rich influence on the Georgics but whose impact has hitherto been underestimated in scholarship A second goal of the volume is to examine how the Georgics with its profound meditations on humankind nature and the socio political world of its creation has been re interpreted and appropriated by readers and critics from antiquity to the modern era The volume opens up a number of exciting new research avenues for the study of the reception of the Georgics by highlighting the myriad ways in which the poem has been understood by ancient readers early modern poets explorers of the New World and female translators of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Catalogue of Books Added to the Library of Congress ,1861 Contemporary Queer Modernism Melanie Micir,2025-04-16 Contemporary Queer

Modernism offers a fresh interdisciplinary approach to the study of the intersections of queer studies and modernist studies The theoretical expansiveness and mutual overlapping of these still growing fields is both introduced and complicated in the pages of this volume Presenting a wide range of critical perspectives the collection brings together original scholarship from both emerging and established scholars that when read together demonstrates the continued vitality of queer modernist studies The book is divided into five parts Temporality Form Embodiment Networks Affect and Atmosphere Contemporary Queer Modernism is a foundational collection that will be invaluable to scholars and students studying modernism and queer theory across a range of disciplines including gender and sexuality studies literary studies cultural studies and performance

Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson,2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history

Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology s wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics

Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character s story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license via link.springer.com
