implementing the Treaty The 2015 Nuclear Accord with Iran and its implementation is also discussed highlighting relevant developments in this evolving area Overall the volume explores relevant issues ultimately presenting a number of suggestions for international cooperation in this sensitive field where political discussion often dominates over legal analysis The important tasks of limiting the proliferation of nuclear weapons ensuring the safety and security of peaceful uses of nuclear energy and achieving nuclear disarmament under strict and effective international control calls for the interpretation and application of international legal principles and rules in their relevant context a task that this book series endeavours to facilitate whilst presenting new information and evaluating current developments in this area of international law Jonathan L Black Branch is Dean of Law and Professor of International and Comparative Law at Robson Hall Faculty of Law University of Manitoba a Barrister at One Garden Court London a Magistrate in Oxfordshire a Justice of the Peace for England a Member of Wolfson College University of Oxford and Chair of the International Law Association ILA Committee on Nuclear Weapons Non Proliferation Member of the Advisory Board of the Amsterdam Center for International Law ACIL and Rapporteur of the International Law Association ILA Committee on Nuclear Weapons Non Proliferation Contemporary International Law

Environmental Damage in International and Comparative Law Michael Bowman, Alan E. Boyle, 2002 This study considers the problems of defining and valuing environmental damage from the perspective of international and comparative law The need for a broad and systematic evaluation of this issue is illustrated by the number of topics presently on the international law making agenda to which it is relevant including the UN Compensation Commission's decisions on compensation for environmental losses suffered by Kuwait in the Gulf War nuclear and oil pollution liability regimes the development of an environmental liability protocol to the Antarctic Treaty and other agreements on bio safety and genetically modified organisms It is thus an important element in contemporary efforts to strengthen legal remedies for environmental harm which does not necessarily come within traditional categories of legally protected personal or property rights Nuclear
