Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya,2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People s revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi

Post-conflict Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Antonio Giustozzi,2016-04-08 This book revisits post Cold War Disarmament

Disintegration and Reintegration DDR programmes in the light of previous experiences of disarmament demobilisation and reintegration In the history of North America and Europe in particular such programmes had a major impact on state building contributing to the development of the welfare state shaping political settlements and directing government policy to maintain social peace The authors in this important book ask what is left of these state building dimensions in contemporary DDR programmes and whether the constraints imposed by international organisations on DDR programmes have more negative effects than positive ones The role of political leadership in DDR processes is highlighted can bureaucratically driven processes deliver success Only if political elites take full control and manage DDR programmes can there be a lasting impact on state building Even then most political elites avoid deep changes in their relationship with the veterans Is there a chance of reshaping international intervention in such a way as to favour the development of a social contract between political elites and veterans In taking a historical perspective this book is unique in the existing literature on DDR and will be essential reading for policy makers students and scholars of conflict studies and those working in NGOs particularly donor agencies This volume was produced with the contribution of the Crisis States Research Centre LSE

The International Committee of the Red Cross and its Mandate to Protect and Assist Christy

Shucksmith, 2017-08-24 The purpose of this book is to consider the legality of the changing practice of the International Committee of the Red Cross ICRC It provides extensive legal analysis of the ICRC as an organisation legal person and humanitarian actor It draws on the law of organisations International Humanitarian Law International Human Rights Law and other relevant branches of international law in order to critically assess the mandate and practice of the ICRC on the ground The book also draws on more abstract human centric concepts including sovereignty as responsibility and human security in order to assess the development of the concept of humanity for the mandate and practice of the ICRC Critically this book uses semi structured interviews with ICRC delegates to test the theoretical and doctrinal conclusions The book provides a unique insight into the work of the ICRC It also includes a case study of the work of the ICRC in the Democratic Republic of Congo Ultimately the book concludes that the ICRC is no longer restricted to the provision of humanitarian assistance on the battlefield It is increasingly drawn into long term and extremely complicated conflicts in which civilians soldiers and non State actors intermingle In order to remain useful for the people on the ground therefore the ICRC is progressively developing its mandate This book questions whether on occasion this could threaten its promise to remain neutral impartial and independent Finally however it should be said that this author finds that the work of the ICRC is unparalleled on the international stage and its humanitarian mandate is a vital component for those embroiled in the undertaking of and recovery from conflict

Travelling Models in African Conflict Management, 2014-05-01 Travelling Models offers a theoretical concept for comparative research on conflict management in Africa in processes of globalization how is change in one place related to developments in other places Why are certain issues that are important in one place taken up in other places while others are not The authors examine how the travel of models enact changes particularly in African conflict situations most often in unexpected ways They look at what happens when a model has been put into practice at a conflict site and they pay attention to the forms of social re ordering resulting from this process The authors look among others at conflict managing models of power and revenue sharing mediation freedom of expression disaster management community involvement and workshopping Contributors are Andrea Behrends Lydie Cabane Veronika Fuest Dejene Gemechu Mutasim Bashir Ali Hadi Remadji Hoinathy Mario Kr mer Sung Joon Park Tinashe Pfigu Richard Rottenburg Sylvanus Spencer and Kees van der Waal The Introduction of this volume is being offered in Open Access Strangers in Our Midst David Miller,2016-05-09 How should democracies respond to the millions who want to settle in their societies David Miller s analysis reframes immigration as a question of political philosophy Acknowledging the impact on host countries he defends the right of states to control their borders and decide the future size shape and cultural make up of their populations

Post-Conflict Power-Sharing Agreements Imad Salamey,Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Elie Abouaoun,2017-07-27 The book surveys comparative power sharing models implemented in societies that have faced identity conflicts with attention given to post conflict design It analyzes the success and pitfalls of international experiences before proposing a model for Syria Contributors address the central question which among the set of power sharing agreements that have helped settle protracted identity driven armed conflict can provide Syria with a platform for dialogue negotiation and conflict mitigation The comparative analysis advanced in this book extracts lessons from countries such as Bosnia Herzegovina India Iraq Lebanon Mali Northern Ireland the Philippines and Sudan The prospect of a post conflict distribution of power in Syria is then unraveled from different sectarian ethnic and regional perspectives The authors also address challenges of peacebuilding such as violent extremism gender participation resettlements retributions transitional justice integration of armed groups and regional and international sponsorship Local Ownership of Peacebuilding in Afghanistan Chuck

Thiessen,2013-11-08 The international community has followed up its 2001 invasion of Afghanistan with a complex multi faceted peacebuilding project However informed observers believe that this Western led mission in Afghanistan has failed to address the inherent peacebuilding needs of Afghanistan and has hindered the formation of a locally experienced sustainable peace In response emerging peacebuilding theories and rhetoric have pointed to an urgent need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and strategies that hold local Afghan ownership of peacebuilding activities as a central concern This book responds to this need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and 1 introduces the topic of local ownership of peacebuilding in Afghanistan 2 surveys current shifts in peacebuilding theory and practice that are only starting to be realized on the ground 3 sets the context for a discussion of local ownership of peacebuilding 4 reports on the perceptions of foreign and Afghan peacebuilding leaders working in Afghanistan in regards to the journey towards local ownership of peacebuilding and 5 suggests the creation of a locally designed and led conflict transformation system that might help restructure local foreign relations and advance the journey towards Afghan ownership of peacebuilding Regulating Business for Peace Jolyon Ford, 2015-02-05 The first book to study how peace operations have engaged with business to influence its peace building impact in fragile and conflict affected societies
