Reising,2017-10-03 The endurance of Pink Floyd s The Dark Side of the Moon on the Billboard Top 100 Chart is legendary and its continuing sales and ongoing radio airplay ensure its inclusion on almost every conceivable list of rock s greatest albums This collection of essays provides indispensable studies of the monumental 1973 album from a variety of musical cultural literary and social perspectives The development and change of the songs is considered closely from the earliest recordings through to the live filmed performance at London s Earls Court in 1994 The band became almost synonymous with audio visual innovations and the performances of the album at live shows were spectacular moments of mass culture although Roger Waters himself spoke out against such mass spectacles The band s stage performances of the album serve to illustrate the multifaceted and complicated relationship between modern culture and technology The album is therefore placed within the context of developments in late 1960s early 1970s popular music with particular focus on the use of a variety of segues between tracks which give the album a multidimensional unity that is lacking in Pink Floyd s later concept albums Beginning with Breathe and culminating in Eclipse a tonal and motivic coherence unifies the structure of this modern song cycle The album is also considered in the light of modern day tribute bands with a discussion of the social groups who have the strongest response to the music being elaborated alongside the status of mediated representations and their relation to the real Pink Floyd John Lennon Imagined Janne Mäkelä,2004 Considered one of the most innovative artists in the history of popular music John Lennon is also a fascinating example of the relationship between rock music and celebrity Through investigation of the cultural and historical background of his stardom in England and the United States this book explores why John Lennon became a much debated celebrity and why he remains so Lennon s career from the 1960s until his tragic death in 1980 and even beyond demonstrates how different expectations articulated by the star the music industry the media and the fans form relations which change in terms of time and place Using a multidisciplinary approach and intriguing

case studies this book also examines cultural identity authenticity and gender in popular music stardom Echo and Reverb Peter Doyle, 2024-08-06 Winner of the Association for Recorded Sound Collections ARSC Award for Excellence in Historical Recorded Sound Research 2006 Echo and Reverb is the first history of acoustically imagined space in popular music recording The book documents how acoustic effects reverberation room ambience and echo have been used in recordings since the 1920s to create virtual sonic architectures and landscapes Author Peter Doyle traces the development of these acoustically created worlds from the ancient Greek myth of Echo and Narcissus to the dramatic acoustic architectures of the medieval cathedral the grand concert halls of the 19th century and those created by the humble parlor phonograph of the early 20th century and finally the revolutionary age of rock n roll Citing recordings ranging from Gene Austin's My Blue Heaven to Elvis Presley's Mystery Train Doyle illustrates how non musical sound constructs with all their rich and contradictory baggage became a central feature of recorded music The book traces various imagined worlds created with synthetic echo and reverb the heroic landscapes of the cowboy west the twilight shores of south sea islands the uncanny alleys of dark cityscapes the weird mindspaces of horror movies the private and collective spaces of teen experience and the funky juke joints of the mind Popular Music Roman Iwaschkin, 2016-04-14 This is a comprehensive guide to popular music literature first published in 1986 Its main focus is on American and British works but it includes significant works from other countries making it truly international in scope The New Grove Dictionary of Musical Instruments Stanley Sadie, 1984
