Self-Esteem Ian Miller, 2024-02-07 By the end of the twentieth century the idea of self esteem had become enormously influential A staggering amount of psychological research and self help literature was being published and before long devoured by readers Self esteem initiatives permeated American schools Self esteem became the way of understanding ourselves our personalities our interactions with others Nowadays however few people think much about the concept of self esteem but perhaps we should Self Esteem An American History is the first historical study to explore the emotional politics of self esteem in modern America Written with verve and insight Ian Miller's expert analysis looks at the critiques of self help that accuse it of propping up conservative agendas by encouraging us to look solely inside ourselves to resolve life's problems. At the same time he reveals how African American LGBTQ and feminist activists have endeavored to build positive collective identities based on self-esteem, pride, and self-respect. This revelatory book will be essential reading for anyone with an interest in the history of mental health and well-being and in how the politics of self-esteem is played out in today's US society and culture.

Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology James T. Murphy, Jr., 2012-08. An initial introduction to the study of Christian theology is both exciting and invigorating for students of its discipline. One can become enameled in the classic perspectives of theology without any consideration of a possible alternative. Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology is an exit from the classic conviction that trumpets the doctrine of soteriology, attributing its substance to the posture of eternity while ignoring the importance of salvation in the existential. Careful not to reject the question of eternal life but examining the nuances of the term salvation empowers this work to present the like manner essential that having salvation is just as much about now than it is in the hereafter.

Shotgun Seamstress Osa Atoe, 2022-11-29. A cut-paste celebration of Black punk and outsider identity, this is the only complete collection of the fanzine Shotgun Seamstress, a legendary DIY project that centered the scope of Blackness outside of mainstream corporate consumerist identity. In 2006, Osa Atoe was inspired to create an expression out of the experience of being the only Black kid at the punk show, and Shotgun Seamstress was born. Like a great mixtape where radical politics are never sidelined for an easier ride, Shotgun Seamstress was a fanzine by and for Black punks that expressed, represented, and documented the fullest range of being and collectively and individually explored all of our possibilities instead of allowing the dominant culture to tell us what it means to be Black. Laid out by hand and photocopied and distributed in small batches, each issue featured essays, interviews, historical portraits of important artists and scenes, reviews, and more, all paying tribute to musicians and artists that typify free Black expression and interrupt notions of Black culture as a monolith. Featuring figures such as Vaginal Cream, Davis, the seminal Black punk band, Death Poly Styrene, Bay Area rocker Brontez Purnell, British post-punker Rachel Aggs, New York photographer Alvin Baltrop, Detroit garage rocker Mick Collins, and so many others in the pages of this book, rock n' roll is reclaimed as Black music, and a wide spectrum of gender and sexuality is represented. Collecting and anthologizing the layouts as they were originally photocopied by hand, this collection comprises all eight issues created between 2006 and 2015.

The Handbook of Race and Adult Education Vanessa Sheard, Juanita Johnson-Bailey, Scipio A. J. Colin, III, Elizabeth Peterson, Stephen D. Brookfield, 2010-05-24. The Handbook of Race and Adult Education. While much attention has been given to inclusion, diversity, and multiculturalism within adult education, The Handbook of Race and Adult Education is the first comprehensive work to engage in a dialogue specifically about race and racism and the effect these factors have on the marginalization or oppression of groups and individuals This landmark book provides the field of adult and continuing education with a model for the discussion of race and racism from social educational political and psychological perspectives and seeks to articulate a conceptual challenge to the ethnocentric focus of the discussion in the field It offers adult education scholars as well as those engaged in research and teaching about race an opportunity to engage in a discourse about race and racism including examinations of how these factors have been seen through multiple theoretical frameworks how they have affected many lived experiences at work home and within educational settings and how they have served to privilege some and not others The book offers an exploration into how these factors need to be centered in a discourse and perspective that can provide those in the margins as well as in the center with ways to think about creating changes in their classrooms communities and homes This volume is a timely addition to the intense racial debate occurring in this country today It is a long overdue medium through which those in higher education as well as the general adult education field can engage in a discussion that leads to critical understanding and moves us into meaningful change Doppelganger Naomi Klein, 2024-09-10 1

African American Girls and the Construction of Identity Sheila Walker, 2020-07-07 In African American Girls and the Construction of Identity Sheila Walker closely examines socioeconomic class and explores the way it shapes how African American girls experience race and gender in the process of their identity formation While all the girls who participated in the two year study are African American their lives are racialized and gendered in significantly different ways in both public and private spaces Affluence is not a guaranteed protection against the identity damaging effects of racism and poverty is not necessarily a risk factor for an irresolute identity By examining identity through the lens of class Walker provides researchers educators and parents a more in depth appreciation of what is a very complex multi layered phenomenon

Depression in African American Clergy Wynnetta Wimberley, 2016-10-31 In this book Wynnetta Wimberley addresses the often overlooked crisis of depression in African American clergy investigating the causes underlying this phenomenon while discussing possible productive paths forward Historically many African American pastors have had to assume multiple roles in order to meet the needs of congregants impacted by societal oppression Due to the monumental significance of the preacher in the African American religious tradition there exists a type of cultural sacramentalization of the Black preacher which sets clergy up for failure by fostering isolation highly internalized and external expectations and a loss of self awareness Utilizing Donald Winnicott's theory of the true and false self Wimberley examines how depression can emerge from this psycho socio theological conflict When pastors are depressed they are more prone to encounter difficulties in their personal and professional relationships Drawing from a communal contextual model of pastoral theology this text offers a therapeutically sensitive response to African American clergy suffering with depression

Battle Cries Hillary Potter, 2008-11-01 Contrary to the stereotype of the strong Black woman African American women are more plagued by domestic violence than any other racial group in the United States In fact African American women experience intimate partner violence at a rate 35% higher than white women and about two and a half times more than women of other races and ethnicities This common portrayal can hinder black women seeking help and support simply because those on the outside don't think help is needed Yet as Hillary Potter argues in Battle Cries Black Women and Intimate Partner Abuse this stereotype often helps these African American women to resist and to verbally and physically retaliate against their abusers Thanks to this generalization Potter observes black women are less inclined to label themselves as victims and more inclined to fight back Battle Cries is an eye opening examination of African American women's experiences with intimate partner abuse the methods used to contend with abusive mates and the immediate and enduring consequences resulting from the maltreatment Based on intensive interviews with 40 African American women abused by their male partners Potter's analysis takes into account variations in their experiences based on socioeconomic class education level and age and discusses the common abuses and perceptions they share Combining her remarkable findings with black feminist thought and critical race theory Potter offers a unique and significant window through which we can better understand this understudied though rampant social problem Voices of Feminist Liberation Emily Leah Silverman, Dirk von der Horst, Whitney Bauman, 2014-10-14 Voices of Feminist Liberation brings together a wide range of scholars to explore the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether one of the most influential feminist and liberation theologians of our time Ruether's extraordinary and ground breaking thinking has shaped debates across liberation theology feminism and eco feminism queer theology social justice and inter religious dialogue At the same time her commitment to practice and agency has influenced sites of local resistance around the world as well as on globalised strategies for ecological sustainability and justice Voices of Feminist Liberation examines the potential of Ruether's thinking to mobilize critical theology social theory and cultural practice The scholars gathered here present their personal engagements with Ruether's thinking and teaching The book will be invaluable to scholars policy makers and activists seeking to understand how colonial and patriarchal oppression in the name of religion can be confronted and defeated

Hopkins, Dwight Hopkins whose important work in Black Theology has mediated class theological concerns through the prism of African American culture here offers a fresh take on theological anthropology Rather than defined the human as one eternal or inviolable essence however Hopkins looks to the multiple and conflicting notions of the human in contemporary thought and particularly three key variables culture self and race Hopkins critical reframing of these concepts firmly locates human endeavor development transcendence and liberation in the particular messiness of struggle and strife Reframing Trauma Through Social Justice Catrina Brown, 2024-07-31
