The Human Soul: Essays in Honor of Nalin Ranasinghe Predrag Cicovacki, 2022-02-01 This collection of essays is dedicated to a recently deceased philosopher and humanist Nalin Ranasinghe His central philosophical and humanistic preoccupation was with the human soul Not surprisingly his greatest inspiration was Socrates credo Care for your soul and the title of his first book was The Soul of Socrates In this and his later writings Ranasinghe expressed his growing concern over the idea that the human soul has been hijacked due to the way our civilization has developed the highest and noblest aspirations of our civilization have been replaced by our obsession with money pleasure and power We now live in a time where we do not know who we are nor who the people around us are Despite all of the technical gadgets connecting us virtually this is the age of disconnect and loneliness as well as of the degradations of humanity Ranasinghe insisted that the two keys for recovery are the self knowledge of the soul and a continuous dialogue with others We need to relearn how to relate to ourselves and others as unique individuals not as objects for the satisfaction of our needs Following his ideas the twenty essays presented here are divided into two parts the soul in reflection and the soul in dialogue The contributors come from various countries around the globe and work in different disciplines and their chapters aim to revive our interest in the soul and the obscured core of our humanity This book will appeal to undergraduate and graduate students of philosophy however the essays are written in a non technical language also making them accessible to the general audience
