hot American Furniture Designers 1900 to the Present highlights the furniture produced by the 20 most important American furniture designers of the 20th and early 21st centuries plus a selection of the best known European designers whose work is sold by Knoll International and Herman Miller. The designers are organized into five chapters. Introductions to each section summarize the evolution of furniture design as it evolved through the 20th and early 21st centuries. The book begins with the Arts and Crafts era before World War I, moves into the interwar period when Modernism gained a foothold in America, continues through the Postwar heyday of Mid-century Modern, highlights the furniture from the 1970s and into the 21st century with a focus on the foremost promoters of modern furniture, Knoll International and Herman Miller, and concludes with a selection of the top Studio Furniture makers and their innovative creations. The book focuses on the leading American designers from each of these periods including Gustav Stickley and Charles Rohlf's during the Arts and Crafts movement, Paul Frankl and Gilbert Rohde in the interwar period, Charles and Ray Eames and George Nelson for Mid-century Modern, and Wendell Castle and George Nakashima for Studio Furniture, to name just a few. All their furniture is explained and profusely illustrated with 280 color photos. For anyone curious about the modern material culture that surrounds them, the book will explain everything about American furniture from 1900 into the 21st century: when it was made, where it was made, who made it, what it was made of, how it was designed, how long it was in production, and how the furniture related to its contemporaries.

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1992 American Windsor Furniture Nancy Goyne Evans, 1997. The indispensable companion volume to Hudson Hills Press' phenomenal American Windsor Chairs. A Short Dictionary of Furniture John Gloag, 2022-10-24. Originally published in 1952 but enlarged and revised in 1969, this dictionary became a standard authoritative work of reference. It contains 2,612 entries and over 1,000 illustrations reproduced from contemporary sources and from drawings by Ronald Escott, Marcelle Barton, and Maureen Stafford. The work is divided into 6 sections: the first and second concern the description and design of furniture; the third contains the entries; the fourth gives a list of furniture makers in Britain and North America; section five records books and periodicals on furniture and design; and the concluding section sets out in tabular form the periods with the materials used and types of craftsmen employed from 1100 to 1950.

Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2000 Tastemaker Monica Penick, 2017-06-13. A riveting and superbly illustrated account of the enigmatic House Beautiful editor's profound influence on mid-century American taste. From 1941 to 1964, House Beautiful magazine's crusading editor in chief, Elizabeth Gordon, introduced and promoted her vision of good design and better living to an extensive middle-class American readership. Her innovative magazine sponsored initiatives including House Beautiful's Pace Setter House Program and the Climate Control Project, popularizing a livable and decidedly American version of postwar modern architecture. Gordon's devotion to what she called the American Style attracted the attention of Frank Lloyd Wright, who became her ally and collaborator. Gordon's editorial programs reshaped ideas about American living and, by extension, what consumers bought and what designers made.

what manufacturers brought to market This incisive assessment of Gordon s influence as an editor critic and arbiter of domestic taste reflects more broadly on the cultures of consumption and identity in postwar America Nearly 200 images are featured including work by Ezra Stoller Maynard Parker and Julius Shulman This important book champions an often neglected source the consumer magazine as a key tool for deepening our understanding of mid century architecture and design American Heritage Society's Americana ,1992 Catalogue Montgomery Ward,1928 American Furniture Oscar P.
