offered her own profound and approachable vision of the Mother of God warm intuitive and accessible She counters the stiff idealized Madonna of the Christmas card with a portrait of Mary that is alive intimate and profoundly relevant for Christians seeking closeness with Christ Drawing from centuries of theological tradition yet enriched by her keen understanding of the human condition and the modern hunger for meaning Houselander gives flesh and spirit to the Church's affirmations about Mary and presents her as a figure designed for contemplation and imitation Through essays and poems divided into four parts Houselander reflects on the mysteries of Mary's life her fiat the finding of Jesus in the Temple her assumption and on themes of emptiness fruitfulness and the soul's longing for union with God In Mary's humanity Houselander finds the model for every believer to carry Christ into the world As Houselander writes The one thing that she did and does is the one thing that we all have to do namely to bear Christ into the world To this need the imitation of Our Lady is the answer in contemplating her we find intimacy with God the law which is the lovely yoke of the one irresistible love Mary was the reed through which Eternal Love was piped as a shepherd's song The question remains for us Are we reed pipes Is God waiting to live lyrically through us

Annunciation Sally Read, 2019-07-22 Sally Read converted from atheism to Catholicism when her daughter Flo was only four years old but it did not take long for the child to become aware that many friends and relatives did not share her mother's newfound faith This consciousness of two worlds led to a great many doubts in Flo and some rebellion Two nights before her First Communion she suddenly questioned whether she should receive the Eucharist Sensing the precarious nature of faith in an overwhelmingly secular world Read began writing down the compelling reasons for holding on to both God and Church Taking the Annunciation as her template she explored common experiences of the spiritual life as she meditated on each part of the story recorded in the Gospel of Luke Drawing on Scripture the saints and the lives of people she has known personally or professionally as a nurse Read shows how God is with us always even in suffering spiritual dryness and depression Although inspired by a mother's loving response to a daughter this book will speak to any believer engaged in the bliss and the bewilderment of a relationship with God
