A Transboundary Cinema Tage Tayfun Einar Luxembourgeus, 2020-09-01

Tun Okan Bay Okan is an independent emigrant filmmaker born in 1942 in Turkey He started his filmmaking career in 1974 with his debut film The Bus which he made in Sweden and partly in Germany He completed the film some seven years after he quit his short but hectic acting career in Turkey's popular commercial cinema industry Ye il am A dentist by training Okan's cinema career started in 1965 after winning an acting competition organised by a popular film magazine Starring in thirteen films in a period of less than two years he achieved considerable fame In 1967 Okan quit his career in Ye il am which he accused of anaesthetising society and immigrated to Switzerland 3 His debut film The Bus was followed by only three other films Dr le de samedi Funny Saturday 1985 Mercedes mon Amour The Yellow Mercedes 1992 and Umut z mleri Grapes of Hope 2013 Okan's films are products that can best be studied in relation to both the mainstream popular cinema of Turkey Ye il am in which Okan started his cinema career and in relation to certain European filmmakers and cinema movements that have influenced his cinema Naficy's accented cinema concept ultimately focuses too much on Hollywood cinema and for this reason it is ill equipped to study the cinema of filmmakers like Okan whose works have little to do with Hollywood Okan's cinema requires a different approach and a vocabulary which will enable one to study his cinema in relation not only to Hollywood but to a diverse group of personal cinemas and cinema movements Okan is an eclectic filmmaker his cinema is in constant flux As I demonstrate in this study Okan's cinema is inspired by a diverse group of filmmakers and cinemas In his films one can find markers of inspirations from and references to a great variety of European filmmakers ranging from Wim Wenders to Jacques Tati Jean Luc Godard to Jack Clayton and cinema movements from Italian Neorealism to the Czechoslovak New Wave French New Wave to British Free Cinema influenced New Wave kitchen sink dramas Although his films feature recurrent themes relating to im migration being the cinema of an independent filmmaker Okan's cinema proves to be a difficult one to categorise because of the many neatly employed inspirations from and references to diverse sources Perhaps this is one of the reasons why it has thus far received so little attention Okan is not a typical Turkish film director Only half of his films take place in Turkey and even those films feature parts that were shot abroad More importantly he is not a film maker who uses themes cultural icons stereotypes narration strategies and filmic aesthetics that have typically been used by filmmakers in Turkey He is also not a filmmaker who has attracted the attention of international critics His cinema is a cinema in between it is a cinema of tensions and competing identities visions and interests It invokes a split reception on the viewer On one hand his films can be read in relation reaction to tendencies in national Turkish cinema and on the other hand in relation to international particularly the European arthouse cinema Given this the best way to understand and appreciate his works is perhaps to read Okan s films in dialogue with developments in both cinema of Turkey and European art cinema for his signature derives influences from a variety of sources in these cinemas Okan s own words identifying himself as a European Turk could be seen as legitimisation and encouragement to discuss his works in relation to both cinema of Turkey and European art cinema Okan is neither a one issue director nor a filmmaker who restricts himself to one format or genre On the contrary his films are always on the road sometimes literally his third film The Yellow Mercedes is a road movie and The Bus though not being a road movie in the strict sense generously exploits the conventions of the genre Figuratively all of Okan s films are in search of new ways of expression Indeed they are the products of this very search This constant search motivates him to challenge and often cross many established conventions and boundaries of cinema Okan s cinema is what I call transboundary cinema
