Roger Laporte The Orphic Text Legenda S:

Roger Laporte: The Orphic Text Ian MacLachlan, 2017-12-02 This is the first full length study devoted to Roger Laporte whose lifelong exploration of the stakes of writing has produced a body of work on the borderline of literature and philosophy Charting the development of Laporte s writing in relation to the work of Heidegger Levinas Blanchot and Derrida this study offers both a comprehensive reading of Laporte s oeuvre and a new perspective on an important strand of recent thinking about literature In particular it is claimed here that the imperfect reflexivity of Laporte s Ophic texts effects a singular opening to reading and that in doing so it illuminates the ethical dimension of literature which has been the subject of much recent discussion

Biography and the Question of Literature in France Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 This book takes a fresh look at the relations between literature and biography by tracing the history of their connections through three hundred years of French literature The starting point for this history is the eighteenth century when the term biography first entered the French language and when the word literature began to acquire its modern sense of writing marked by an aesthetic character Arguing that the idea of literature is inherently open to revision and contestation Ann Jefferson examines the way in which biographically orientated texts have been engaged in questioning and revising definitions of literature At the same time she tracks the evolving forms of biographical writing in French culture and proposes a reappraisal of biography in terms not only of its forms but also of its functions Although Ann Jefferson s book has powerful theoretical implications for both biography and the literary it is first and foremost a history offering a comprehensive new account of the development of French literature through this dual focus on the question of literature and on the relations between literature and biography It offers original readings of major authors and texts in the light of these concerns beginning with Rousseau and ending with life writing contemporary authors such as Pierre Michon and Jacques Roubaud Other authors discussed include Mme de St el Victor Hugo Sainte Beuve Barbey d Aurevilly Baudelaire Nerval Mallarm Schwob Proust Gide Leiris Sartre Genet Barthes and Roger Laporte

Salut centres on the relationship between poet Michel Deguy and philosopher Jacques Derrida Translations of two essays Of Contemporaneity by Deguy and How to Name by Derrida allow Christopher Elson and Garry Sherbert to develop the implications of this singular intellectual friendship In these thinkers efforts to reinvent secular forms of the sacred such as the singularity of the name and especially poetic naming Deguy by adopting a Derridean programme of the impossible and Derrida by developing Deguy's ethics of naming through the word salut situate themselves at the forefront of contemporary debates over politics and religion alongside figures like Alain Badiou and Jean Luc Marion John Caputo and Martin Hagglund

Mallarme's Sunset Barnaby Norman, 2017-07-05 The writings of the great Symbolist poet Stephane Mallarme 1842-1898 were to become uniquely influential in twentieth century literary criticism For critics and philosophers such as Maurice Blanchot and Jacques Derrida Mallarme's name came to represent a rupture in literary history and an opening of literature onto a radically new kind of writing Through close readings of key works Norman retraces Mallarme's trajectory as a poet showing in particular how he positioned his work in relation to Hegel's Aesthetics Analysing the motif of the sunset Norman argues that Mallarme situated his work at the conclusion of the history of art in Hegelian terms and it is this that made him so interesting for Blanchot and Derrida Their readings born of their wish to subvert Hegel's totalizing impulse give rise to an entirely new view of works now almost universally seen as masterpieces Marking Time Ian Maclachlan, 2012
