The New Pocket Rogets's Thesaurus in Dictionary Form Norman Lewis,1961      Essays on Art and Language Charles Harrison,2003-09-12 Critical and theoretical essays by a long time participant in the Art Language movement These essays by art historian and critic Charles Harrison are based on the premise that making art and talking about art are related enterprises They are written from the point of view of Art Language the artistic movement based in England and briefly in the United States with which Harrison has been associated for thirty years Harrison uses the work of Art Language as a central case study to discuss developments in art from the 1950s through the 1980s According to Harrison the strongest motivation for writing about art is that it brings us closer to that which is other than ourselves In seeing how a work is done we learn about its achieved identity we see for example that a drip on a Pollock is integral to its technical character whereas a drip on a Mondrian would not be Throughout the book Harrison uses specific examples to address a range of questions about the history theory and making of modern art questions about the conditions of its making and the nature of its public about the problems and priorities of criticism and about the relations between interpretation and judgment      □□□□□□□□ ,1977      Canadiana ,1950      The New York Times Book Review ,1966      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993      Your Career as a Medical Secretary Transcriber Selma G.
