Say That We Saw Spain Die:

Say that we saw Spain die John Martin Muste, 1966 We Saw Spain Die Paul Preston, 2012-03-01 The war in Spain and those who wrote at first hand of its horrors From 1936 to 1939 the eyes of the world were fixed on the devastating Spanish conflict that drew both professional war correspondents and great writers Ernest Hemingway John Dos Passos Josephine Herbst Martha Gellhorn W H Auden Stephen Spender Kim Philby George Orwell Arthur Koestler Cyril Connolly Andr Malraux Antoine de Saint Exup ry and others wrote eloquently about the horrors they saw at first hand Together with many great and now largely forgotten journalists they put their lives on the line discarding professionally dispassionate approaches and keenly espousing the cause of the partisans Facing censorship they fought to expose the complacency with which the decision makers of the West were appeasing Hitler and Mussolini Many campaigned for the lifting of non intervention revealing the extent to which the Spanish Republic had been betrayed Peter Preston s exhilarating account illuminates the moment when war correspondence came of age Her War Story Sayre P. Sheldon, 1999 This volume contains writings of or about war from the following authors Nina Macdonald Rebecca West Vera Brittain Edith Wharton Mary Borden Ellen La Motte Colette Helen Zenna Smith Dorothy Canfield Fisher Amy Lowell Willa Cather Mary Lee Elizabeth Shepley Sergeant Gertrude Stein Kathe Kollwitz Charlotte Mew Katherine Mansfield Louise Bogan Toni Morrison Jane Addams Emmeline Pethick Lawrence Edna St Vincent Millay Martha Gellhorn Frances Davis Dorothy Parker Gertrud Kolmar Virginia Woolf Dorothy Thompson Ding Ling Anna Akhmatova Olivia Manning Elizabeth Bowen Bryher H D Mary Lee Settle Elizabeth Vaughan Iris Origo Christabel Bielenberg Etty Hillesum Sara Nomberg Przytyk Charlotte Delbo Elsa Morante Mitsuye Yamada Hirabayashi Taiko Kikue Tada Doris Lessing Kathryn Hulme Kay Boyle Gwendolyn Brooks Marguerite Higgins Martha Gelhorn Mary McCarthy Grace Paley Huong Tram Lady Borton Margaret Atwood Muriel Rukeyser Susan Griffin Karla Ramirez Margaret Thatcher Molly Moore Fadwa Tuqan Dahlia Ravikovitch Meena Alexander Marta Traba Lina Magaia and Margaret Drabble Say that We Saw Spain Die John M. Muste, 1966 The Wound and the Dream Cary Nelson, 2002 When the United States and other powers declined to help fight fascist power at the onset of the Spanish Civil War forty thousand private citizens from fifty two countries rallied to join the International Brigade s defense of the Spanish Republic Born out of the struggle between fascism and democracy and considered the first battle of World War II the Spanish Civil War holds tremendous ideological significance and has inspired a remarkable range of American poetry The Wound and the Dream represents the sixty year tradition of American poetic responses to the Spanish Civil War and provides an overview of progressive American poetry as a whole Four of the featured poets Alvah Bessie William Lindsay Gresham James Neugass and Edwin Rolfe were members of the International Brigade Their poetry appears alongside lesser known works by some of the greatest American poets of the twentieth century including Wallace Stevens Edna St Vincent Millay Randall Jarrell Langston Hughes and Philip Levine Cary Nelson s introduction discusses the collective nature of the poems

puts them in their international context and provides a sturdy framework for interpreting the Spanish Civil War as a historical conjecture that has dramatically altered the ways we read and write poetry The book also includes a brief biography of each poet and a glossary of related terms

American War Poetry Lorrie Goldensohn, 2006 Arranged by war the book begins with the Colonial period and proceeds through Whitman admiring Civil War soldiers crossing a river to end with Brian Turner who published his first book in 2005 beckoning a bullet in contemporary Iraq

Crusade of the Left Robert Rosenstone, 2018-02-06 Between 1936 and 1938 some 3 000 young Americans sailed to France and crossed the Pyrenees to take part in the brutal civil war raging in Spain Virtually all joined the International Brigades formed under the auspices of the Soviet led Comintern and largely directed by Communists Yet a large number were not Communists their activism was inspired by domestic and international crises of the 1930s and colored by idealism The men who went to Spain came out of a radical subculture that emerged from the Depression and the New Deal Th is radicalism was a native plant but it was nourished from abroad In the thirties the menace of fascism seemed to be spreading like cancer across Europe giving an international aspect to many domestic problems in the United States To intellectuals students unionists liberals and leftists the threat of fascism was so real that many came to believe that if it was not stopped in Spain eventually they would have to take up arms against fascism at home To understand the Americans who fought in the Spanish Civil War it is necessary to bury some of the shibboleths of cold war years Dissidence in the United States occurs in response to perceptions of reality on this side of the Atlantic not because of the wishes of men in the Soviet Union Th e members of the Lincoln Battalion were genuine products of America and their story is properly a page in American military and political history From them one can learn much about the world of the 1930s and perhaps even something about the potential of modern man for thought and action in time of crisis

Mosaic Fictions Emily Robins Sharpe, 2020-03-26 Mosaic Fictions reveals the tensions between national and global affiliations in Spanish Civil War literature highlighting writers such as Leonard Cohen Dorothy Livesay and Mordecai Richler

Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies Cary Nelson, Dilip Gaonkar, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996 As recently as the early 1990s people wondered what was the future of cultural studies in the United States and what effects its increasing internationalization might have What type of projects would cultural studies inspire people to undertake Would established disciplines welcome its presence and adapt their practices accordingly Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies answers such questions It is now clear that while striking and innovative work is underway in many different fields most disciplinary organizations and structures have been very resistant to cultural studies Meanwhile cultural studies has been subjected to repeated attacks by conservative journalists and commentators in the public sphere Cultural studies scholars have responded not only by mounting focused critiques of the politics of knowledge but also by embracing ambitious projects of social political and cultural commentary by transgressing all the official boundaries of knowledge in a broad quest for cultural understanding This book tracks these debates and maps future strategies for cultural studies in academia and public life The contributors to Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies include established scholars and new voices In a series of polemic and exploratory essays written especially for this book they track the struggle with cultural studies in disciplines like anthropology literature and history and between cultural studies and very different domains like Native American culture and the culture of science Contributors include Arjun Appadurai Michael Denning Lawrence Grossberg Cary Nelson Constance Penley Andrew Ross and Lynn Spigel

W.H. Auden Peter Edgerly Firchow, 2002 This book is not a survey or a guide to all or even most of Auden's poetry though it does follow the general outlines of Auden's development as a poet and thinker BOOK JACKET
