Two Wings Douglas Kries, Brian Clayton, 2018-03-22 In this book two college professors explain how believing and reasoning are two human activities that may be integrated to form a complete view of human existence They take their title from the opening of John Paul II's encyclical Fides et Ratio which speaks of the human spirit rising on the two wings of faith and reason to stretch toward the truth that is available to all In the first part of the book the authors offer a basic yet engaging encounter with traditional arguments for and against God's existence They grapple with doubts arising from the question of evil and the discoveries of contemporary natural science The final chapters take up questions from ethics and politics that impact the way individuals and communities choose to structure their lives This book is non dogmatic it seeks to probe the contours of the questions asked by inquiring minds The authors fairly address arguments supporting and opposing their own viewpoints while using simple analogies designed for non specialists Thus they provide the best available starting point for confidently entering into the greatest conversation of all time Fatima's Scarf David Caute,1998 From his earliest years Gamal Rahman was a troublemaker By the time The Devil an Interview is published Gamal is living in exile in England Publicly damned and burned by incensed Muslims in the Yorkshire city of Bruddersford his book generates communal upheaval Racial tensions erupt Muslim girls inspired by the fourteen year old Fatima embark on a bitter strike to defend their right to wear the scarf of modesty in school While the claims of women fuel the flames young men embrace the Sons of Allah dedicated to the execution of the apostate author Gamal Rahman What should a writer owe to himself and what to society With the Heavies in Flanders, 1914-'15-'16-'17-'18-'19 Harold F.
