Germaine Tailleferre
(1892-1983)

[♩ = c.88]

The image shows the first 15 measures of a musical score for 'Sonata alla Scarlatti' by Germaine Tailleferre. The score is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. It consists of four systems of staves. The first system (measures 1-4) features a treble staff with eighth-note patterns and a bass staff with a simple accompaniment. The second system (measures 5-8) continues the treble staff's melodic line. The third system (measures 9-12) shows more complex rhythmic patterns in the treble. The fourth system (measures 13-15) concludes the excerpt with a final cadence. A large, diagonal 'PREVIEW' watermark is overlaid across the center of the page.

Germaine Tailleferre was at the heart of French artistic life as a member of Les Six – a group of composers that also featured Georges Auric, Louis Durey, Arthur Honegger, Darius Milhaud and Francis Poulenc. She was a prolific, popular and often-performed composer during her lifetime, working as a musician up to the last few days of her life.

This upbeat, optimistic neo-Baroque piece is in her typical crisp, clear style. It was influenced by her early study of the harpsichord, and is rhythmically regular, requiring a light touch and delicate, accurate playing throughout. Dynamics are left to the player's discretion, since there are none provided by the composer.
