Dark Memory Christine Feehan, 2024-09-24 Experience a connection that defies death in this captivating novel in Christine Feehan's 1 New York Times bestselling Carpathian series Safia Meziane has trained since birth to protect her tribe the family she holds so dear All along she told herself the legends she was raised with were simply that But now she must call upon all of her skills to fight what lies ahead Evil has come to their small town on the coast of Algeria evil that Safia can feel but cannot see She is terrified she will not be able to protect the ones she loves As her family's chosen one she has always believed she would face this task alone until her family reveals she has been promised to a warrior who will join her An outsider A Carpathian Petru Cioban is one of the oldest Carpathians in existence and he has spent all that time without the soothing presence of his lifemate For two thousand years he has waited for this woman to be reborn only to find her in the sights of a monster he has fought before a vampire risen again to finish a battle started centuries ago Now Petru must face his greatest enemy and his greatest shame He has no hope that Safia will forgive his betrayal once the memories of her past life return to her But he will not make the same mistake again even if he has to sacrifice everything for the woman who has claimed his immortal soul MEMORY SPROUTS I SATHEESAN RANGORATH, 2019-08-12 Poetry came to me as a shy girl dressed in sweet shades and glow She winked at me seduced me and unaware I fell in love with her Holding hands we trekked many terrains visited wonderlands and monuments on earth Come let me carry you in my hands like a dream You will love to explore my pages Road Scars Robert Matej Bednar, 2020-07-21 Despite the ubiquity of automobility the reality of automotive death is hidden from everyday view There are accident blackspots all over the roads that we use and go past every day but the people that have died there or been injured are not marked unless by homemade shrines and personal memorialization Nowhere on the planet is this practice as densely actioned as in the United States Road Scars is a highly visual scholarly monograph about how roadside car crash shrines place the collective trauma of living in a car culture in the everyday landscapes of automobility Roadside shrines or road trauma shrines are vernacular memorial assemblages built by private individuals at sites where family and friends have died in automobile accidents either while driving cars or motorcycles or being hit by cars as pedestrians bicyclists or motorcyclists Prevalent for decades in Latin America and in the American Southwest roadside car crash shrines are now present throughout the U S and around the world Some are simply small white crosses almost silent markers of places of traumatic death Others are elaborate collections of objects texts and materials from all over the map culturally and physically all significantly brought together not in the home or in a cemetery but on the roadside in drivable public space a space where private individuals perform private identities alongside each other in public and where these private mobilities sometimes collide with one another in traumatic ways that are negotiated in roadside shrines This book touches on something many of us have seen but few have explored intellectually The State and Nation-Building Processes in Kenya since Independence Mwangi, Susan Waiyego, Opongo, Elias Omondi, Whom, Ephraim Wachira, 2019-06-25 Kenya's nationalism during the colonial period was marked by two main characteristics that feature in this book First the struggle for independence that was mainly characterized by the claim for land that had been taken away by the colonizers Second was the struggle for autonomy and self determination mainly through political resistance The authors in this book analyse historical trajectories of Kenya's nationalism trends while highlighting the role of political leaders large as well as small ethnic groups perennial conflicts community as well as religious leaders among others The discussions demonstrate that quest for a national identity that is inclusive at all levels whether politically economically religiously and ethnically has marked Kenya's struggle for nationalism sometimes leading to violence especially during election periods national unity through political coalitions and reconciliation as well as institutional reforms In conclusion the authors demonstrate that while Kenya is gradually advancing towards national cohesion there are still many challenges yet to be surmounted Show'em Your Scars Robert Mattingly, 2005-09 Uncovering Memory Tanja Sakota, 2023-03-01 My interest in site specific research is not random My mother escaped through the sewers of Breslau Germany in 1945 today known as Wroclaw Poland My father was born in a country that no longer exists Their final destination was Johannesburg South Africa This is where I enter the narrative I was born during apartheid and my interest in memory and identity is a result of my historical and political context Each one of us comes with a history a complex web of DNA and a library of information that shapes who we are and how we view the world How can we use our own complexities not only to engage with one another but to build it for story content As an artistic researcher filmmaker and educator Tanja Sakota has often thought how to bring this subjective experience into pedagogical practice Using paired themes of memory and forgetting segregation and migration perpetrators and victims Sakota travels along a timeline of memory as she takes us on a journey through South Africa Germany Poland and Bosnia Herzegovina Using a camera and short film techniques she hosts several workshops focused on interacting and engaging with remembering through different memory sites The author sits at the core but the book is an interdisciplinary work shaped around films made by different participants using the camera to access and unveil personal interpretations of space and place Questions that underpin the uncovering of memories are How does one use a camera to unmask invisible memories hidden within sites How does one remember events that one hasn't necessarily experienced How does one use film to interrogate the past from the future present As the journey evolves workshop participants and readers alike enter into a conversation around practice based research autoethnography and film Uncovering Memory is not a handbook offering a prescriptive method Instead it is a pedagogical text that offers an interactive approach for students and peers to consider adapt or react to in their own teaching and learning practices The narrative encourages readers to self reflect as they explore their own memory using the camera and short film format as an engaging tool for research and knowledge production
