Scheduled Caste Welfare Myth Or Reality:

Scheduled Caste Welfare R. B Singh, 2003 Study conducted at Amritsar District of Punjab State India The Political And Social Condition Of Scheduled Castes In Jammu (eBook) Neeraj Singh Manhas, Myths & Realities of Security & Public Affairs Arvindar Singh, 2011-01-01 This volume contains an anthology of writings over the last about ten years of Arvindar Singh a well known scribe in the journalistic circles of Uttarakhand and Delhi The author has meticulously dealt with the topics he chose to work upon and produced writings which are of great stimulant value to a productive mind and anyone who wants to know the twists and turns in the contemporary history of the modern Indian State Here one finds pieces on individuals as diverse as Surjit Singh Barnala Field Marshal Sam Manekshaw Jaiprakash Narayan Morarji Desai and Nani Palkhivala all described in a matter befitting a work of this nature The author does not fail to pull his punches while dealing with themes like the controversial Siachen Glacier a historical analysis of the Indo China dispute as well as various personal narratives which will undoubtedly appeal to the perceptive reader Various historic personalities are dealt with at a one to one level The characteristics of Morarji Desai known for his forthright views the humility of Nani Palkhivala the Ian of Sam Manekshaw who was a born charmer to mention a few The writer has also reviewed a large number of books critically and his specialisations have been defence affairs and politics affecting the sub continent among a multiplicity of subjects

Occupational Mobility among Scheduled Castes Jagan Karade, 2020-10-27 The book discusses the educational achievements and occupational mobility among the Scheduled Castes in India the group that is a large section of Indian population called as Dalit was deprived of their basic legitimate and human rights to live with dignity The book shows that the second generation of Scheduled Castes is highly mobile as compared to their fathers generation It also attempts to measure the impact of Inclusive Policy provided by the Government of India In this book author found that after the religious conversion under the leadership of Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar the Mahars converted to Buddhism Therefore the Buddhist community is more aware about the occupational development as compared to other communities Hence the development of the Buddhists could be treated as an ideal model for all the Backward Classes in India EMPOWERMENT OF MARGINALIZED CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS S. Gurusamy, 2019-06-05 Part I Dalit Dimension Part II Women Dimension Part III Old Age Dimension Part IV Social Development Dimension Part V Peasants and Agricultural Labour Study of sociology in India invariably relates to the composition of segments communities institutions social organizations regions issues problems faced by these segments challenges uncounted in the process social welfare programmes for the people vulnerable to problems impact of development intervention among these segments planned directed social change people s participation in development transactions social caste and benefits including social audit capital formation induced development micro level planning and public private partnership based development initiatives in the direction of social development However the Indian social structure perpetuating inequality arising out of caste gender region people s vulnerability to injustices human rights implications etc act as stumbling block in creation of a society Consequently India is faced with sustained inequality in view of the system of social stratification within the larger framework of the social structure Social relationships in Indian context is marked by social standing and identification in the system of hierarchy which seem to have perpetuated strongly the phenomenon of caste based inequalities which ultimately resulted in various forms of discriminations and distance between community and determined their social status As a result social segment categories were based upon their ascribed status ownership means of production particularly land and other movable and immovable properties Consequently this has led to emergence of social evil practices between social segments categorized as upper and lower gender inequality between male and female regional imbalance between rural and urban in terms of development intervention and creation of infrastructure
