Practical Sacramental Theology Bruce T. Morrill, 2021-09-09 What motivates practice of the liturgy and sacramental rites of the church Does the worship of God begin and end within each ritual enactment or does the truth and value of sacramental celebration reside in the broader context of Christian life in church and society For more than two decades prominent Jesuit sacramental liturgical theologian Bruce Morrill has explored the promise and problems inherent in the Second Vatican Council's call to renew liturgy's basic purpose namely the glorification of God and the sanctification of people Morrill's fundamental argument is that this ancient Christian principle is of a piece that divine glory and human holiness are so to speak two sides of a single coin The value of liturgy and sacraments is depleted if not lost unless they function within a holistic practice of faith that seeks the upbuilding of ethical lives personal and social With numerous real life examples plus references to current sociological studies the chapters address both modern challenges to and biblical and traditional resources for the celebration of sacramental rites today Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology

Corneliu C. Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man's terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today's people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

World Cinema, Theology, and the Human Antonio Sison, 2012-05-04 Forging an open minded but reasoned dialogue between nine acclaimed titles of world cinema and a range of theological perspectives that touch on the theme of human experience World Cinema Theology and the Human offers fresh portals of insight for the interdisciplinary area of Theology and Film In Sison's approach it is the cinematic representation of vivid humanity not necessarily propositional statements about God and religion that lays down a bridge to a conversation with theology Thus the book's project is to look for the divine presence written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts depicted on screen by way of audiovisual language Seeking to redress the interdisciplinary's narrow predilection for Hollywood blockbusters the book casts its net wider to include a culturally diverse selection of case studies from festival gems such as Singapore's Be With Me and South Africa's Yesterday to widely acclaimed sleeper hits such as Britain's Slumdog Millionaire and New Zealand's Whale Rider The book will appeal to scholars of theology and religious cultural studies interested in the Theology Religion Film interface and because of its commitment to an examination of film qua film a crossover readership from film studies

The Ontology of the Church in Hans Küng Corneliu C. Simuț, 2007 This book investigates the signs of the church in the theology of Hans Küng as described in his The Church 1967 As Küng does not go beyond the traditional signs of the church the author makes a thorough analysis of the unity catholicity holiness and apostolicity of the church with plentiful references to other contemporary theologians such as Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward Schillebeeckx Henri de Lubac Yves Congar and even Joseph Ratzinger The relevance of the book consists in its approach to classical theological issues which lay the foundation for a contemporary reassessment of the church The author is concerned not to defend particular doctrines but to see how Küng's theology of the signs of the church fits within the context of his time

T&T Clark Handbook of Theological Anthropology Mary Ann Hinsdale, Stephen Okey, 2021-01-28 Including classical modern and postmodern approaches to theological anthropology this volume covers the entire spectrum of thought on the doctrines of creation the human person as imago Dei sin and grace The editors have gathered an exceptionally diverse range of voices ensuring ecumenical balance Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox and the inclusion of previously neglected perspectives women African American Asian Latinx and LGBTQ The contributors revisit authors from the Great Tradition early church medieval and modern and discuss them alongside critical and liberationist approaches ranging from feminist decolonial and intersectional theory to critical race theory and queer performance theory This is a much needed overview of a rapidly evolving field

A Philosopher Looks at Jesus Edward J. Machle, 2008-03-01 This book is the response to a lifetime of questions raised by fellow philosophers by students and by the author's own wrestlings Since the author claims that Jesus's importance goes beyond his being just a moral teacher Edward Machle discusses the difference between the foundations of philosophy and of theology and how the disciplines of philosophy and theology use language differently Then Machle goes on to present his somewhat unorthodox evaluations of the four gospels and their relevance rejecting for instance claims of a Q document and dating Matthew later than Luke Since any account of Jesus must assume that before Jesus appears in the records he had a distinctive development two admittedly fictional narratives follow preparing for distinctive emphases in the author's later discussions of frequently met problems about Jesus's birth miracles aims and death Machle lays unusual emphasis on the centrality of the title Son of Man for Jesus Extensive discussions of the resurrection narratives and questions about them follow leading to a unique treatment of John's Prologue The last three chapters deal with Jesus's relation to modern belief and life

Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century
