Schimmelreiter Der German Literary Texts:

The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld, 2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship

A Brief History of German Literature George Madison Priest, 1909 Cultural History Through a National Socialist Lens Robert Charles Reimer, 2000 This collection of essays offers a view of Nazi Germany through an analysis of twenty films These represent a sampling of the period s directors and reflect the film medium s major genres For in spite of the control that Goebbels s film industry exercised over all aspects of filmmaking in the Third Reich the films reveal an individuality that belies subsuming them under any one rubric or containing them within any one theory Films such as Hitlerjunge Quex Die groe Liebe and Auf Wiedersehen Franziska represent the Nazi film industry s efforts to propagandize through entertainment Others such as Immensee Kleider machen Leute and Der Schimmelreiter reveal an attempt to expropriate Germany s rich literary past for the regime These literary adaptations and films like Gl ckskinder La Habanera and Der Kaiser von Kalifornien today seem void of Nazi ideology if viewed outside the context of Nazism Yet another film Der ewige Jude shocks us with its virulent anti-Semitism and hateful propaganda almost sixty years after its release All of the films treated regardless of their fame or notoriety or the level of commitment of their directors to the Nazi cause played an important role in a cinema that not only represents the dreams and lives of the citizens of the Third Reich but influenced them as well Robert C Reimer is professor of German at the University of North Carolina Charlotte Catalogue Raisonné of German Literature.
