SchNEWS at Ten SchNEWS.,2004 A decade of party and protest Ten years of direct action It all started in a squatted courthouse in Brighton back in 1994 with people wearing silly wigs reading out the alternative news Ever since then SchNEWS has been publishing continuous weekly newsheets full of radical get off your arse direct action politics from Britain and across the world This book brings together some of the key stories of the decade from the big roads protest and anti Criminal Justice Act movement in the nineties through to the global anti capitalist movement and opposition to the war in Iraq From Newbury to Seattle Liverpool Dockers to the Zapatistas with a lot of the less well known but equally important moments in between And not forgetting our crap arrests of the week Marxism and Film Activism Ewa Mazierska,Lars Kristensen,2015-07-01 In Theses on Feuerbach Marx writes The philosophers have only interpreted the world differently the point is to change it This collection examines how filmmakers have tried to change the world by engaging in emancipatory politics through their work and how audiences have received them It presents a wide spectrum of case studies covering both film and digital technology with examples from throughout cinematic history and around the world including Soviet Russia Palestine South America and France Discussions range from the classic Marxist cinema of Aleksandr Medvedkin Chris Marker and Jean Luc Godard to recent media such as 5 Broken Cameras 2010 the phenomena of video blogging and bicycle activism films The Identity Dilemma Aidan McGarry,James Jasper,2015-06-19 Collective identities are politically necessary or at least useful as banners for recruiting others and engaging opponents and the state However not every member fits or accepts the label in the same way or to the same degree The Identity Dilemma provides eight diverse case studies of social movements to show the benefits risks and tradeoffs when a group develops a strong sense of collective identity The editors and contributors to this pathbreaking volume examine how collective identities can provide powerful advantages but also generate conflicts The various chapters help to develop our understanding of collective identity from how strategic identities are developed for protest groups to how stigmatized groups negotiate identity dilemmas Ultimately The Identity Dilemma contributes a new strategic approach to understanding social movements that highlights the choices and tensions that groups inevitably face in articulating their ideas and interests Contributors include Marian Barnes Cristina Flesher Fominaya Umut Korkut Elzbieta Korolczuk John Nagle Clare Saunders Neil Stammers Marisa Tramontano Huub Van Baar and the editors Alternative Journalism, Alternative Voices Tony Harcup,2013 Bringing together new and classic work by Tony Harcup this book considers the development of alternative journalism from the 1970s up until today Bringing theory and practice together Harcup builds an understanding of alternative media through the use of detailed case studies and surveys Including opinions of journalists who have worked in both mainstream and alternative media he considers the motivations practices and roles of alternative journalism as well as delving into ethical considerations Moving from the history of alternative journalism Harcup considers the recent spread of citizen journalism and the use of social media and
