Scholarship Advisor:

Scholarship Advisor 2001 Christopher Vuturo, 2000-12 Shows students how to take advantage of scholarship money and details an array of more than 500 000 scholarship opportunities including tips on writing essays and getting recommendations Nationally Competitive Scholarships National Association of Fellowships Advisors.

Conference, 2007-07-01 Guidance for students applying for national scholarships Nationally competitive scholarship programs attract thousands of applicants every year for a relatively small number of awards Providing informed and dedicated support to applicants is the critical and fundamental goal of the National Association of Fellowships Advisors NAFA The thirteen essays in this volume are a direct result of the 2005 NAFA conference held in Louisville Contributors include both scholarship advisors and representatives of the Truman and Marshall foundations as well as the former executive director of the US UK Fulbright Commission These essays provide practical information ranging from helping faculty write persuasive letters of recommendation to serving international students effectively to negotiating the British and Irish high educational systems In addition to providing the students with useful tips these essays also reflect on the broader impact of the application process They address the successes of students who do not win as well as the public service involvement of those who do as they give back to their campus local and global communities Bridging the Gap Suzanne McCray, Dana C. Kuchem, 2019-07-23 Thousands of college students across the country apply each year for nationally and internationally competitive scholarships and grants Different awards target different interests career goals and student qualifications Advising students on how to choose the right award that will help launch them on their career path requires a nuanced understanding of scholarship opportunities Bridging the Gap Perspectives on Nationally Competitive Scholarships provides key information from scholarship foundations and seasoned advice from campus advisors critically important for the faculty and staff who support students applying for these awards This book will be a great resource for anyone advising students
