The State of the System Paul W. Bennett, 2020-09-23 Over the last fifty years Canada's public schools have been absorbed into a modern education system that functions much like Max Weber's infamous iron cage Crying out for democratic school level reform the system is now a centralized bureaucratic fortress that every year becomes softer on standards for students less accessible to parents further out of touch with communities and surprisingly unresponsive to classroom teachers Exploring the nature of the Canadian education order in all its dimensions The State of the System explains how public schools came to be so bureaucratic confronts the critical issues facing kindergarten to grade 12 public schools in all ten provinces and addresses the need for systemic reform Going beyond a diagnosis of the stresses strains and ills present in the system Paul Bennett proposes a bold plan to re-engineer schools on a more human scale as the first step in truly reforming public education In place of school consolidation and managerialism one size fits all uniformity limited school choice and the success for all curriculum Bennett advocates for a new set of priorities decentralize school governance deprogram education ministries and school districts listen to parents and teachers and revitalize local education democracy Tackling the thorny issues besetting contemporary school systems in Canada The State of the System issues a clarion call for more responsive engaged and accountable public schools The School Portfolio Victoria. L Bernhardt,2014-05-22 A school portfolio is the most effective way to ensure your school s success at systemic reform Extensively tested it is a non threatening self assessment tool which exhibits a school s goals achievements and vision for improvement This book will show you how to develop a school portfolio tailored to your particular school and vision School Effectiveness And School-Based Management Yin Cheong Cheng,2013-01-11 The aim of this book is to bridge the widening gap between ongoing educational reforms and the lack of advances in knowledge research and practice Included is a description of new mechanisms in fields such as leadership staff development and curriculum change Jsl Vol 3-N4 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP,1993-07-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Case Studies of School Based Management in Three Urban Middle Schools Frederick Michael McCollor,1998 Directory of Organizations in Educational Management,1994
