School Effectiveness The Key Ingredients Of Schools With Heart:

School Effectiveness G. Thomas Houlihan, 1988 Jsl Vol 1-N3 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1991-05-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Educational Technology United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, Space, and Technology. Subcommittee on Technology and Competitiveness, 1991 This hearing on computer assisted instruction and the use of educational technology in classrooms was held in response to a presidential request that instructional innovation be given special attention particularly in science and mathematics education in every congressional district This transcript of the hearing includes statements presented by the following witnesses 1 Walter E Massey Director National Science Foundation 2 Educational Technology Computer Based Instruction David T Kearns Deputy Secretary Department of Education 3 Educational Technology New Tools for Teaching and Learning Linda G Roberts Senior Associate Science Education and Transportation Program Office of Technology Assessment 4 Computer Based Instruction Technology 5 Albert Shanker President American Federation of Teachers 6 Interactive Digital Multimedia and School Learning Environments Leroy J Tuscher Professor of Education and Computer Science Lehigh University 17 references 7 Educational Technology Computer Based Instruction G Thomas Houlihan Superintendent Johnston County Schools Smithfield North Carolina and 8 Statement of the U S Chamber of Commerce on Educational Technology Computer Based Instruction Jeffrey H Joseph Vice President of Domestic Policy for the U S Chamber of Commerce DB Journal of School Leadership , 1991 Servant Leadership Rocky Wallace, 2011-11-04 Servant Leadership Leaving a Legacy is a heart warming closure to the Principal to Principal series This fourth book finds John battling cancer that might be terminal and his conversations with Brad and others he is mentoring provide a unique glimpse into the heart of a true servant leader John s passion for life and caring for others is contagious and leaves the reader clinging to the hope that he will beat his one last challenge In an era of reinvention of schools on all levels this story zeroes in on the critical need for integrity driven leaders who understand how vision innovative thinking emotional intelligence and authentic relationship can transform a school s culture National Forum of Educational Administration and Supervision Journal , 2001 School Effectiveness Pamela Sammons, 1999-01-01 This volume explores the influence of students background on educational outcomes ways of contextualising school performance and current issues and developments in school effectiveness research Also investigated is how the research contributes to understanding of school and classroom processes Teaching Low Achieving and Disadvantaged Students Charles H. Hargis, 1989 School Effectiveness for Whom? Roger Slee, Sally Tomlinson, Gaby Weiner, 2003-05-20 School effectiveness research together with what is now described as the school improvement movement Barber 1996 has captured both the Conservative and New Labour imaginations as a basis for educational planning and policy making in the UK Internationally school effectiveness enjoys and expanding and enthusiastic audience This book provides a critique of this research genre particularly in the light of the recent calls for teaching to go back to the basics The editors argue that this school effectiveness research is simplistic in its analysis of educational problems Far from getting to the bottom of the problem of failing students and schools they argue these movements are merely scratching at the surface of the problems and coming up with notions for superficial improvements The Gradual Art of School Improvement Richard Steward, 2019-06-13 School improvement in recent years has largely focused on rapid improvement and quick fixes Yet genuine and sustainable school improvement is complex gradual and incremental It requires developing a culture and focusing relentlessly on teaching and learning The Gradual Art of School Improvement is a comprehensive practical guide to school improvement covering aspects such as improvement planning staff development the learning environment dealing with outside pressures including inspection curriculum design and the role of leaders at all levels It includes Detailed accounts of the steps that can be taken to create a positive learning culture over time Case studies and worked examples concentrating on the practical aspects of school improvement from the perspective of an experienced and successful head teacher Ready to use practitioner resources that readers can adapt and use in their own settings Accessibly written and entertaining this book is an invaluable resource for leaders at all levels and stages of their career
