The Black Roots and White Racism of Early Pentecostalism in the USA Walter J Hollenweger, Iain MacRobert, 1988-10-10

Our Mothers, Our Powers, Our Texts Teresa N. Washington, 2005-06-27

Washington writes supple and thoughtful prose and creatively integrates African and African derived terminology which never distract the reader I consider Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts not only a brilliant study but also a model to be emulated

Ouseyounou B Traore William Patterson University j is a Yoruba word that signifies a spiritual power of vast potential as well as the human beings who exercise that power Although both men and women can have j its owners and controllers are women the literal and cosmic Mothers who are revered as the gods of society Because of its association with female power its invisibility and profundity j is often misconstrued as witchcraft However as Teresa N Washington points out in Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts j is central to the Yoruba ethos and cosmology Not only does it underpin the concepts of creation and creativity but as a force of justice and retribution j is essential to social harmony and balance As Africans were forced into exile and enslavement they took j with them and continued its work of creating destroying harming and healing in the New World Washington seeks out j's subversive power of creation and re creation in a diverse range of Africana texts from both men and women from both oral and contemporary literature and across space and time She guides readers to an understanding of the symbolic methodological and spiritual issues that are central to important works by Africana writers but are rarely elucidated by Western criticism She begins with an examination of the ancient forms of j in Yoruba culture which creates a framework for innovative readings of important works by Africana writers including Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Jamaica Kincaid and Ntozake Shange This rich analysis will appeal to readers of Africana literature African religion and philosophy feminist studies and comparative literature

Journal of the Literary Society of Nigeria, 1981

African Religions Newell Snow Booth, 1977

African Religion, Philosophy, and Christianity in Logos-Christ Emmanuel K. Twesigye, 1996

The author demonstrates the universal reality and sound logic of the efficacious existence of God's universal salvation and God's kingdom beyond the confines of the traditional Apostolic Christian Church God's universal Agape in creation is mediated through God's eternal Word Logos Christ. The creative and redemptive cosmic work of God in the Logos Christ constitutes God's universal gratuitous process of creation and recreation or redemption. No human being or society is ever left out of this redemptive universal free grace of God. Transafrican Journal of History, 1980 African Studies Newsletter, 1976 Jesus Christ as Logos Incarnate and Resurrected Nana (Ancestor) Rudolf K. Gaisie, 2020-10-16. This book seeks to demonstrate the significance of Ancestor Christology in African Christianity for christological developments in World Christianity. Ancestor Christology has developed in the process of an African conversion story of appropriating the mystery of Christ Eph 3:4 in the category of ancestors. Logos Christology in early Christian history developed as an intricate byproduct in the conversion process of turning Hellenistic ideas towards the direction of Christ. A. F. Walls. Hellenistic Christian writers and modern African Christian writers thus share some things in common and when their efforts are examined within the conversion process framework, there are discernible modes of engagement. The mode of Logos Christology that one finds in Origen, for example, is an innovative application of the understanding of Jesus Christ as Logos incarnate, a new key but not discontinuous with the Johannine suggestive mode or the clarificatory mode of Justin Martyr. African Ancestor Christology is at the threshold of an innovative mode and the argument this book makes is that this strand of African Christology should be pursued in the indigenous languages aided by respective translated Bibles. A suggested way is a Logos Ancestor Nana's discourse in Akan Christianity. Okike, 1981.
