Queer Disappearance in Modern and Contemporary Fiction Benjamin Bateman, 2023-01-31 Queer Disappearance in Modern and Contemporary Fiction breaks with appearance based models of queer performativity and argues for the experiential richness and political potentials of recessive tendencies in twentieth and twenty first century queer literary production The study theorizes a perish performative that allows for agency in practices of abeyance and it discovers within queerness's ample archive of vanishing acts an environmental ethos antithetical to inflationary versions of the human Tying modernist classics by E M Forster and Willa Cather to Andrew Holleran's gay classic Dancer from the Dance and then moving to the contemporary ecogothic of Lydia Millet's How the Dead Dream and the trans decadence of Shola von Reinhold's Lote the book refuses the common wisdom that queerness becomes louder and prouder over time delineating instead a minimalist and daydreaming subjectivity wherein queerness finds escape respite and varied opportunities for imaginative reverie This precarious subjectivity necessitated but not defined by oppression and obstacle rewards and restores the queer self and it also contests the logics of development acquisition and productivity that wreak havoc on the planet and entrench social disparities of race class and ability Queer Disappearance in Modern and Contemporary Fiction supplies multiple accounts of the collective and personal pleasures possibilities and perils to be found in pulling away going missing and taking a break
