Reclaiming John Steinbeck Gavin Jones, 2021-06-10 John Steinbeck is a towering figure in twentieth century American literature yet he remains one of our least understood writers This major reevaluation of Steinbeck by Gavin Jones uncovers a timely thinker who confronted the fate of humanity as a species facing climate change environmental crisis and a growing divide between the powerful and the marginalized Driven by insatiable curiosity Steinbeck's work crossed a variety of borders between the United States and the Global South between human and nonhuman lifeforms between science and the arts and between literature and film to explore the transformations in consciousness necessary for our survival on a precarious planet Always seeking new forms to express his ecological and social vision of human interconnectedness and vulnerability Steinbeck is a writer of urgent concern for the twenty first century even as he was haunted by the legacies of racism and injustice in the American West

Radial Symmetry Katherine Larson, 2011-04-26 Katherine Larson is the winner of the 2010 Yale Series of Younger Poets

Competition With Radial Symmetry she has created a transcendent body of poems that flourish in the liminal spaces that separate scientific inquiry from empathic knowledge astute observation from sublime witness Larson s inventive lyrics lead the reader through vertiginous landscapes geographical phenomenological psychological while always remaining attendant to the speaker s own fragile creaturely self An experienced research scientist and field ecologist Larson dazzles with these sensuous and sophisticated poems grappling with the powers of poetic imagination as well as the frightful realization of the human capacity for ecological destruction The result is a profoundly moving collection eloquent in its lament and celebration
