Harbor for Our Hope Ignatius Brianchaninov, 2020-05-01 St Ignatius Brianchaninov 1807-1867 is renowned as a writer on the spiritual life in general What is less well known is that throughout most of his adult life he struggled with chronic illness and disability Thus his own life experience disposed him to reflect on the meaning of suffering for human existence and how through it we might find a harbor for our hope The saint frequently returns to these themes in many of his letters newly translated into English and excerpted adapted and presented here in thematic subject groups These writings provided a source of consolation and encouragement for the translator during her husband's lengthy illness and eventual death They will equally benefit all who suffer physical or spiritual pain however great or small and reveal how the love of God may be experienced in its midst

Dragonfly vs monarch Charley Brindley, 2020-10-20 The Dragonfly and Monarch are tiny drone aircraft designed to resemble actual insects They can flitter around military installations and terrorists' camps without being noticed while they collect video data about these installations and the people in charge On their first mission over an isolated stretch of desert their remote pilots one American and one Russian are drawn into a strange struggle to survive In their attempt to retrieve their disabled drones the pilots discover a shocking secret about themselves Translator Charley Brindley PUBLISHER TEKTIME
