Seafaring Stranger:

The Cinema of Raúl Ruiz Michael Goddard, 2013-09-22 Raúl Ruiz while considered one of the world's most significant filmmakers by several film critics is yet to be the subject of any thorough engagement with his work in English. This volume sets out on this task by mapping as fully as possible Ruiz's cinematic trajectory across more than five decades of prolific work up to his death in 2011 ranging from his earliest work in Chile to high budget European costume dramas culminating in Mysteries of Lisbon 2010. It does so by treating Ruiz's work with its surrealist, magic realist, popular cultural and neo-Baroque sources as a type of impossible cinematic cartography mapping real, imaginary and virtual spaces and crossing between different cultural contexts, aesthetic strategies and technical media. It argues that across the different phases of Ruiz's work identified there are key continuities such as the invention of singular cinematic images and the interrogation of their possible and impossible combinations.
