Seams Of A Womans Soul:

Seams of a Woman's Soul Salvatore V. Ambrosino, 1982      A Taste of Chicken Soup to Inspire a Woman's Soul Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-10-02 This is just a Taste of Chicken Soup to Inspire a Woman's Soul Stories celebrating the wisdom fun and freedom of midlife A small portion small book      Female Devotion and Textile Imagery in Medieval English Literature Anna McKay, 2024 Uncovers the female voices lived experiences and spiritual insights encoded by the imagery of textiles in the Middle Ages For millennia women have spoken and read through cloth The literature and art of the Middle Ages are replete with images of women working cloth wielding spindles distaffs and needles or sitting at their looms Yet they have been little explored Drawing upon the burgeoning field of medieval textile studies as well as contemporary theories of gender materiality and eco criticism this study illustrates how textiles provide a hermeneutical alternative to the patriarchally dominated written word It puts forward the argument that women's devotion during this period was a fabricated phenomenon a mode of spirituality and religious exegesis expressed devised and practised through cloth Centred on four icons of female devotion Eve Mary St Veronica and of course Christ the book explores a broad range of narratives from across the rich tapestry of medieval English literature from the fields of Piers Plowman to the late medieval Morte D arthur the devotions of Margery Kempe to the visionary experiences of Julian of Norwich Gervase of Tilbury's fabulous Otia Imperialia to the anchoritic guidance literature of the Middle Ages and the innumerable and oft forgotten lives of Christ prayers legends and miracle tales in between      Chicken Soup for the Working Woman's Soul Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-09-25 Whether she is a corporate executive or a factory worker an entrepreneur or a mompreneur today's woman is an integral part of the workforce and the American Dream      Pictorial Review, 1922 Includes music      The Young Ladies' Elocutionary Reader Anna U. Russell, 1847      Owens, Laura Scott Rothkopf, 2017-01-01 A richly illustrated expansive mid career survey of the stand out American artist's pioneering and influential work with each copy featuring a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens's studio Since the early 1990s Laura Owens b 1970 has challenged traditional assumptions about figuration and abstraction in her pioneering approach to painting Created in close collaboration with the artist on the occasion of her mid career survey at the Whitney Museum of American Art this inventive and comprehensive book features an incisive introduction by Scott Rothkopf critical essays literary texts and short commentaries on a variety of subjects related to Owens's broad interests which range from folk art and needlework to comics and wallpaper Reflections by more than twenty of Owens's fellow artists collaborators assistants dealers family members and friends offer an array of perspectives on her work at different periods in her life beginning with her high school years in Ohio and ending with her current exhibition A rich trove of more than a thousand images drawn from the artist's personal archive and largely unpublished before now includes personal correspondence journals academic transcripts handwritten notes source material exhibition announcements clippings and installation photographs Strikingly each copy also features a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens's studio giving readers the opportunity to own an original work of art Together all of these elements provide a rare and intimate look at how an artist might make her way in the world as well as how art gets made movements take hold and relationships evolve over time Energy Medicine For Women Donna Eden, David Feinstein, 2012-03-22 For more than three decades Donna Eden has been teaching people to understand the body as an energy system to recognize their aches and pains as signals of energy imbalance and to reclaim their natural healing capabilities In her long awaited new book Donna speaks directly to women showing them how they can work with energy to tackle the specific health challenges they face She reveals that a woman can manage her hormones by managing her energies and also use energy medicine to treat a host of health issues From PMS to menopause from high blood pressure to depression the book offers easy to follow solutions to women's health issues that traditional medicine often fails to provide Blending a compassionate voice with a profound grasp of how the female body functions as an energy system Eden presents what is sure to become a classic book on the subject of women's health The London and Paris ladies' magazine of fashion, ed. by Mrs. Edward Thomas Jane Thomas (née Pinhorn), 1877 Female Alliances Amanda E. Herbert, 2014-01-21 In the late seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries cultural economic and political changes as well as increased geographic mobility placed strains upon British society But by cultivating friendships and alliances women worked to socially cohere Britain and its colonies In the first book length historical study of female friendship and alliance for the early modern period Amanda Herbert draws on a series of interlocking microhistorical studies to demonstrate the vitality and importance of bonds formed between British women in the long eighteenth century She shows that while these alliances were central to women's lives they were also instrumental in building the British Atlantic world A Collection of Chicken Soup for the Woman's Soul, 2005 The Belly of a Woman Shanet Dennis, 2009 This book is a collection of poetry chronicling my life's experiences It's geared towards women empowerment I talk about a lot of taboo subject like abortion fornication adultery vanity and betrayal As well as spirituality love motherhood entrepreneurship and life purpose Not only do I talk about these things but I explain how I have learned from them Gut wrenching issues told in the rawest form Things only a woman can give birth to 13 13 13 13 The Belly of a Woman 13 13 In this no holds barred tell all Shanet Dennis gives you her gut wrenching story in the rawest of forms The Belly of a Woman is more than an autobiographical poetry book This collection of poetry chronicles the life experiences of a young woman loved scorned betrayed scarred by abortion weakened from giving her power to men and searching for a purpose in life Growing tired of shouldering her problems she inherited a desire and unfailing courage to finally change her situation for the better 13 13 Shining light on the behavior and reasons why so many young women and men are unhappy and go through life not realizing not knowing that they have choices The Belly of a Woman encourages that even happiness can be a choice it just takes work to get there but it's so worth it Anne Kempner Fisher Literary Editor 13 The Deep Seam Jack Bethea, 1926 The Woman's World ... Oscar Wilde, 1890

Miscellaneous essays. Thought-coin from the ages. Compiled by W. Eunson William Eunson,1898      The Madwoman in the Attic Sandra M. Gilbert,Susan Gubar,2020-03-17 A feminist classic Judith Shulevitz New York Times Book Review A pivotal book one of those after which we will never think the same again Carolyn G Heilbrun Washington Post Book World A pathbreaking book of literary criticism is now reissued with a new introduction by Lisa Appignanesi that speaks to how The Madwoman in the Attic set the groundwork for subsequent generations of scholars writing about women writers and why the book still feels fresh some four decades later      The Seam Line Israel Drori,2000 Many Arab communities in Israel s Galilee region are home to export oriented textile factories owned by multinational corporations whose Jewish managers employ local Arab and Druse women as seamstresses and low level work supervisors Based on five years of ethnographic research this book explores how these managers and workers negotiate the terms and meanings of factory work integrating work culture with the norms and values of the host towns in order for employment arrangements to succeed The entrance of industrial corporations into developing areas of the world particularly in those industries employing primarily women has generated tension between traditional familial and social roles and the demands of industrial working life In Israel these tensions are further complicated by the social and political dynamics of Arab Jewish conflict as well as the strictly demarcated roles of women and men in traditional Arab society The resolution of these tensions on the shop floor shapes the social relations of production the factories management systems family life in the industrial towns and individual status and autonomy The negotiation involves unequal power relations manifested in a dual patriarchal structure the Arab cultural practice of male domination of women as well as the formal management system of the textile concern which dictates the nature of relationships between Jewish managers and Arab women workers To meet their business goals the managers must cooperate with the community that provides their workforce adapting its norms and appropriating its worldview The managers are constrained by the strict social rules of Arab and Druse society and respond by attempting to harness and manipulate local family values to foster personal commitment furthering production goals through paternal control The consequence of this paternalism is a workforce that relates to the organization as family identifies with its goals and internalizes feelings of loyalty However the workforce also uses the plant as the arena for developing self awareness and enhancing personal independence and status within the family The seamstresses emerge as active shapers of the organizational culture forcing the managers to adapt to and comply with their personal needs and perceptions of work
