Malebranche: The Search After Truth Nicolas Malebranche, Paul J. Olscamp, 1997-05 Distinguished translation of the major work by a figure of crucial importance to the Enlightenment The Search after Truth and Elucidations of the Search after Truth Nicolas Malebranche, 1980 Malebranche: The Search after Truth Nicolas Malebranche, 1997-05-01 Malebranche is now recognized as a major figure in the history of philosophy occupying a crucial place in the Rationalist tradition of Descartes Spinoza and Leibniz The Search after Truth is his first longest and most important work this volume also presents the Elucidations that accompanied its third edition the result of comments that Malebranche solicited on the original work and an important repository of his theories of ideas and causation Together the two texts constitute the complete expression of his mature thought and are written in his subtle argumentative and thoroughly readable style The Search After Truth Nicolas Malebranche, Thomas M. Lennon, 1980 Philosophical Selections Nicolas Malebranche, 1992-01-01 Features the selections that provide the student of modern philosophy with both a view of Malebranche's philosophical system and a picture of his most important doctrines This title presents Malebranche's occasionalism his theory of knowledge and the vision in God and his writings on theodicy and freedom The Search After Truth Nicolas Malebranche, Thomas M. Lennon, 1980 Cogito and the Unconscious Slavoj Žižek, 1998-04-08 The Cartesian cogito the principle articulated by Descartes that I think therefore I am is often hailed as the precursor of modern science At the same time the cogito's agent the ego is sometimes feared as the agency of manipulative domination responsible for all present woes from patriarchal oppression to ecological catastrophes Without psychoanalyzing philosophy Cogito and the Unconscious explores the vicissitudes of the cogito and shows that psychoanalyses can render visible a constitutive madness within modern philosophy the point at which I think therefore I am becomes obsessional neurosis characterized by If I stop thinking I will cease to exist Noting that for Lacan the Cartesian construct is the same as the Freudian subject of the unconscious the contributors follow Lacan's plea for a psychoanalytic return to the cogito Along the path of this return they examine the ethical attitude that befits modern subjectivity the inherent sexualization of modern subjectivity the impasse in which the Cartesian project becomes involved given the enigmatic status of the human body and the Cartesian subject's confrontation with its modern critics including Althusser Bataille and Dennett In a style that has become familiar to Žižek's readers these essays bring together a strict conceptual analysis and an approach to a wide range of cultural and ideological phenomena from the sadist paradoxes of Kant's moral philosophy to the universe of Ayn Rand's novels from the question Which if any is the sex of the cogito to the defense of the cogito against the onslaught of cognitive sciences Challenging us to reconsider fundamental notions of human consciousness and modern subjectivity this is a book whose very Lacanian orthodoxy makes it irreverently transgressive of predominant theoretical paradigms Cogito and the Unconscious will appeal to readers interested in philosophy psychoanalysis cultural studies and theories of ideology

George Berkeley and Early Modern Philosophy Stephen H. Daniel,2021-04-01 Stephen Daniel presents a study of the philosophy of George Berkeley in the intellectual context of his times with a particular focus on how for Berkeley mind is related to its ideas Daniel does not assume that thinkers like Descartes Malebranche or Locke define for Berkeley the context in which he develops his own thought Instead he indicates how Berkeley draws on a tradition that informed his early training and that challenges much of the early modern thought with which he is often associated Specifically this book indicates how Berkeley s distinctive treatment of mind as the activity whereby objects are differentiated and related to one another highlights how mind neither precedes the existence of objects nor exists independently of them This distinctive way of understanding the relation of mind and objects allows Berkeley to appropriate ideas from his contemporaries in ways that transform the issues with which he is engaged The resulting insights for example about how God creates the minds that perceive objects are only now starting to be fully appreciated The Battle of the Gods and Giants Redux Patricia

Easton,2015-09-07 The Battle of Gods and Giants Redux is a collection of 14 original essays by leading scholars in the field Part One includes figures and topics associated with Descartes the chief idealist in the story including Leibniz Spinoza and Malebranche Part Two includes figures and topics that fall on the Gassendist materialist side of the battle including Hobbes Bayle and Locke In organizing these varied discussions along these themes and lines something more than the sum of the parts emerges The reader will gain a breadth and depth of insight into the battle of ideas in early modern thought historical philosophical and interpretive Contributors are Margaret Atherton Martha Brandt Bolten Patricia Easton Lorne Falkenstein Nicolas Jolley Jos Maia Neto Steven Nadler Alan Nelson Lawrence Nolan Donald Rutherford Tad Schmultz Kurt Smith Julie Walsh and Richard Watson Representational Ideas R. A. Watson,2012-12-06 In Representational Ideas From Plato to Patricia Churchland Watson argues that all intelligible theories of representation by ideas are based on likeness between representations and objects He concludes that 17th century materialist criticisms of having mental representations in the mind apply to contemporary material representations in the brain as proposed by neurophilosophers The argument begins with Plato with particular stress on Descartes Malebranche and Arnauld He then proceeds with an examination of the picture theory developed by Wittgenstein Carnap and Goodman and concludes with an examination of Patricia Churchland Ruth Millikan Robert Cummins and Mark Rollins The use of the historical development of representationalism to pose a central problem in contemporary cognitive science is unique For students scholars and researchers in neuroscience cognitive science philosophy of mind and modern philosophy Dispositions and Causal Powers Bruno Gnassounou,2016-05-23

Dispositions are everywhere We say that a wall is hard that water quenches thirst and is transparent that dogs can swim and oak trees can let their leaves fall and that acid has the power to corrode metals All these statements express attributions of dispositions be they physical physiological or psychological yet there is much philosophical debate about how far if at all dispositional predicates can have complete meaning or figure in causal explanations This collection of essays by leading international researchers examine the case for realism with respect to dispositions and causal powers in both metaphysics and science Among the issues debated in this book is whether dispositions can be analyzed in terms of conditionals whether all dispositions have a so called categorical basis and if they do what is the relation between the disposition and its basis

Mary Astell William Kolbrener, 2016-05-13 Mary Astell Reason Gender Faith includes essays from diverse disciplinary perspectives to consider the full range of Astell's political theological philosophical and poetic writings The volume does not eschew the more traditional scholarly interest in Astell's concerns about gender rather it reveals how Astell's works require attention not only for their role in the development of early modern feminism but also for their interventions on subjects ranging from political authority to educational theory from individual agency to divine service and from Cartesian ethics to Lockean epistemology Given the vast breadth of her writings her active role within early modern political and theological debates and the sophisticated complexity of her prose Astell has few parallels among her contemporaries Mary Astell Reason Gender Faith bestows upon Astell the attention which she deserves not merely as a proto feminist but as a major figure of the early modern period

Descartes, Malebranche, and the Crisis of Perception Walter R. Ott, 2017 Seventeenth century French philosophers grappled with a lasting problem how do we use qualities such as color feel and sound to locate objects in the world even though these qualities are not real Walter Ott explores the debate about perceptual experience covering Descartes and Malebranche alongside their less known contemporaries
