Searching For The Emperor:

Searching for the Emperor Roberto Pazzi, 1988      The Search for Mabila Vernon J. Knight, 2009-04-26 The Search for Mabila describes one of the most profound events in sixteenth century North America which was a ferocious battle between the Spanish army of Hernando de Soto and a larger force of Indian warriors under the leadership of a feared chieftain named Tascalusa      The Adventures of God in His Search for the Black Girl Brigid Brophy, 2013-10-17 In the title story of The Adventures of God in His Search for the Black Girl the main character God himself expresses a taste for writing that is sophisticated stylish literary The words apply very well to Brigid Brophy's own best work New Republic What we have here is more common in England than America reading that is at once very light and very intellectual Consistent with her commitment to artifice and the rococo Brophy believes in play She is liveliest when speaking or making the illustrious dead speak of the life of art of literature music architecture which she thinks about a lot and knows a lot about Washington Post Tasty and nutritious generally wise and witty full of game playing Brigid Brophy remains a good though very British writer balanced erudite sensible unsubmissive to shrill sociological shibboleths above all unscared Anthony Burgess New York Times Book Review      The Search for a Vanishing Beijing M.A. Aldrich, 2008-03-01 The Search for a Vanishing Beijing weaves the genres of travel essays and travel guides into a comprehensive narrative about the cultural mosaic of the capital of China      The Search for the Christian Doctrine of God Richard Patrick Crosland Hanson, R. P. Hanson, 2005-01-01 First published in 1988 The Search for the Christian Doctrine of God is still considered by many scholars to be the finest work on the Arian Controversy Examining scholarly works on the Controversy and many original texts Professor Hanson provides a clear understanding of how the traditional and historic doctrine of God as the Holy Trinity reached its most mature and enduring form The author is not primarily concerned to defend the orthodox position itself but rather to discover and examine the formation of that orthodoxy The history of the events the Councils the interventions of the Emperor the rivalries of sees the behaviour of bishops the varying fortunes of the different schools of thought and their leaders is interwoven with the progression of thought and doctrine during the sixty years of the Controversy Professor Hanson sees the problem of the reconciliation of two concepts which were both part of the very fabric of Christianity monotheism and the worship of Jesus Christ as divine      The Search-light , 1903      Jeremiah'S Search for the Truth Jeremy Vincent, 2010-05-18 I dedicate this book to those people that question the world around them Even as a young child I wondered about things that most people simply dismissed as what is I dedicate this book to the questions that have never been answered because they have never been asked I would also like to dedicate this book to the two greatest girls a father could ask for Hannah and Madelyn My wife and I have dedicated our lives to ensuring our girls are better than their parents They are well on their way      The Search for the Self in Statius' >Thebaid< Jean-Michel Hulls, 2021-07-19 The aim of this project is to provide a sustained analysis of the concept of self in Statius Thebaid It is this project's contention that the poem is profoundly interested in ideas of identity and selfhood The poem stages itself as a metapoetic exploration of the difficulties for a belated epicist in finding a place in the literary canon it shows the impossibility of squaring large scale epic poetics with small scale finely wrought Callimacheanism it reflects the violent disjunction between Statius authorial pose as a poet without power and the extreme violence of his poetics it opens up the intricacies of constructing original coherent characters out of intertextual exemplary models The central tenet of the project is that Statius in the Thebaid stages his own death but does so that his poem may live This book is intended for an academic audience including undergraduate and graduate students as well as specialists in the field Although the project will be of primary importance to readers of Flavian literature it will also be of interest to those who study intertextuality and characterisation in Roman literature more generally selfhood and identity in Roman literature and culture and the reception of Roman literature

Zhang Yijing (1871-1931) and the Search for a Chinese Christian Identity Jue Wang (王觉), 2021-10-06 Can Christian identity and national identity be reconciled For Christians in China this question is particularly fraught While Sinicization offers the indigenous church one path forward it fails to provide a tenable solution for believers unwilling to submit their love of God under love of country Dr Jue Wang explores an alternative roadmap for Chinese Christian identity in the writings of Zhang Yijing The editor of True Light a Chinese Baptist publication Zhang was also a Chinese patriot Confucian and life long proponent of science and reason Utilizing the lens of identity studies Dr Wang examines Zhang's process of reconciling faith and culture in his quest to be both authentically Christian and authentically Chinese. This study offers a fascinating glimpse into the modern history of the Chinese church while uncovering the significance of an often overlooked Chinese Christian apologist. Zhang's example offers encouragement and hope for believers around the world seeking to integrate social, cultural, and national identities under the lordship of Christ.

Searching for Justice Fred Kaufman, Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History, 2005-01-01. The Honourable Fred Kaufman has been a distinguished figure in Canadian law for a half century. Born into a middle class Jewish family in mid 1920s Vienna, Kaufman escaped to England on the eve of the Second World War. In 1940 he was interned as an enemy alien and sent to Canada. Released in 1942, Kaufman stayed in Canada where he went on to university and law school in Montreal. Kaufman was called to the Bar of Quebec in 1955 and practiced criminal law for eighteen years, taking part in many of the famous cases of that period. In 1960 he secured the release of a young Pierre Elliott Trudeau from prison, and in 1973 Trudeau returned the favour by personally informing Kaufman of his appointment to the Quebec Court of Appeal, where he served for eighteen years, including one as Acting Chief Justice of Quebec. Since his retirement in 1991, Kaufman has led numerous commissions and inquiries, most notably the investigation into the wrongful conviction of Guy Paul Morin and the two-year reassessment of the Steven Truscott case. Searching for Justice is Kaufman's remarkable story in his own words. It is the tale of adversity overcome in a crucial period of Canadian legal history.
