Searching For The Good A Young Mans Journey To War And Back:

Searching for the Good Thomas A. Brewer,2000 Searching for the Good is a harrowing very human examination of the myths realities of war Told through the author s personal journey it also relates the story of that multitude of soldiers who served with honor in Vietnam came home went on with their lives in spite of much pain torment It s about youth patriotism pride guilt the horrors of ground combat It s about returning adjusting never forgetting It evokes the daily experience of life in the field the rush of adrenaline in combat It tracks the personal repercussions positive negative on the lives of the survivors For better or worse war has shaped our country it s citizens It is an essential part of our outlook on life our institutions our policies almost certainly our future In this book the author while capturing the universal experiences feelings of the sixties generation speaks out on behalf of the men women who served in what some have said is the only war America has ever lost Many readers of this book have been both inspired moved to tears by this courageous account of a personal odyssey and Resistance in the Maghreb Nabil Boudraa, Joseph Ohmann Krause, 2021-07-29 This book studies women's resistance in the three countries of the Maghreb concentrating on two questions First what has been the role of women artists since the 1960s in unlocking traditions and emancipating women on their own terms Second why have Maghrebi women rarely been given the right to be heard since Algeria Morocco and Tunisia gained national independence Honouring the artistic voices of women that have been largely eclipsed from both popular culture and political discourse in the Maghreb the work specifically examines resistance by women since 1960s in the Maghreb through cinema politics and the arts In an ancillary way the volume addresses a wide range of questions that are specific to Maghrebi women related to upbringing sexuality marriage education representation exclusion and historical memory These issues in their broadest dimensions opened the gates to responses in different fields in both the humanities and the social sciences The research presents scholarship by not only leading scholars in Francophone studies cultural history and specialists in women studies but also some of the most important film critics and practicing feminist advocates The variety of periods and disciplines in this collection allow for a coherent and general understanding of Maghrebi societies since decolonization The volume is a key resource to students and scholars interested in women's studies the Maghreb and Middle East studies A Companion to the American Short Story

Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature Wounded Masculinity and the Search for (Father)

Self in American Film Susan Mackey-Kallis, Brian Johnston, 2023-12-12 Drawing on texts and theorists of Greek myth psychoanalysis and masculinities Susan Mackey Kallis and Brian Johnston develop and offer a model of rhetorical and mythic criticism to analyze popular American film In this book Mackey Kallis and Johnston focus their analysis on films that point to the need for father atonement ego decentering and the resurrection of the lost feminine to heal our collective gendered cultural wounds Many of these mystic films they contend affirm the role of meaningful suffering compassion integration of the feminine self sacrifice and transcendence as antidotes to the inevitable woundedness of the human condition Ultimately the authors argue for the importance of digging into the substance of cultural wounds rather than superficially suturing them over to change the conversation about woundedness and provide a roadmap for healing gendered relations in contemporary American culture The book concludes with a discussion of Joseph Campbell s interpretation of the metaphorical power of myth and its transcendent function to argue for a theory of us rather than a theory of us versus them Scholars of film gender studies American studies cultural studies gender studies and psychology will find this book of particular interest The Pall Mall Budget ,1881 The Road from Damascus Scott C.
