Somewhere between John Steinbeck and Merle Haggard these short stories are about people who work in the fields sleep in cars and bunkhouses and sort out the problems that life hands them One character remembers the day Marilyn Monroe died another runs off with an underage girl and another finds a hidden rifle in a dead man s house These people live in a world of young hopes and sad memories pretty girls and hard work Field Work John D. Nesbitt, A Good Man to Have in Camp John D. Nesbitt, Out on a ranch in the foothills Jim Lander is trying to get his life in order He s trying to put his divorce behind him so he can develop a relationship with Dusty a nice young woman who lives in town Things get complicated though when he doesn t resist temptations at the Trail s End his favorite honky tonk bar To sort things out he goes to the mountains But even then it takes the right combination to get things into balance Nothing comes easy but it is possible to find a good camp up and away from it all where the best light comes from the moon and the campfire This is John D Nesbitt s second novel about life in the contemporary West As in his other work Nesbitt gives a realistic treatment to his materials His characters are less than perfect having been through divorce or similar mistakes and giving a hesitant try at romance They live in a setting that Nesbitt writes about the best small town life farm and ranch country and the big outdoors where everyone has the right to look for a good camp This is a lean trim novel with a graceful prose style that will remind us of why we like to read
