Imperial Delusions Carl Boggs, 2005 In this hard hitting critique Carl Boggs argues that the United States is dominated by a new militarism one that has become more potent and menacing since 9 11 He skillfully explores the origins and development of this new militarism and show its devastating effects on American society

Unhitched Richard Seymour, 2013-01-16 Irascible and forthright Christopher Hitchens stood out as a man determined to do just that In his younger years a career minded socialist he emerged from the smoke of 9 11 a neoconservative Marxist an advocate of America s invasion of Iraq filled with passionate intensity Throughout his life he played the role of universal gadfly whose commitment to the truth transcended the party line as well as received wisdom But how much of this was imposture In this highly critical study Richard Seymour casts a cold eye over the career of the Hitch to uncover an intellectual trajectory determined by expediency and a fetish for power As an orator and writer Hitchens offered something unique and highly marketable But for all his professed individualism he remains a recognizable historical type the apostate leftist Unhitched presents a rewarding and entertaining case study one that is also a cautionary tale for our times
