African American Literature Beyond Race Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2006-04-01 Fiction by Toni Morrison James Baldwin Octavia E Butler and others that isn't focused on race with original introductions by leading scholars It is widely accepted that the canon of African American literature has racial realism at its core African American protagonists social settings cultural symbols and racial political discourse As a result writings that are not preoccupied with race have long been invisible unpublished out of print absent from libraries rarely discussed among scholars and omitted from anthologies However some of our most celebrated African American authors from Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright to James Baldwin and Toni Morrison have resisted this canonical rule even at the cost of critical dismissal and commercial failure African American Literature Beyond Race revives this remarkable literary corpus presenting sixteen short stories novelettes and excerpts of novels from the postbellum nineteenth century to the late twentieth century that demonstrate this act of literary defiance. Each selection is paired with an original introduction by one of today's leading scholars of African American literature. By casting African Americans in minor roles and marking the protagonists as racially white, neutral, or ambiguous, these works of fiction explore the thematic complexities of human identity, relations, and culture. At the same time, they force us to confront the basic question: What is African American literature? Includes fiction by James Baldwin, Octavia E. Butler, Samuel R. Delany, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Frances Ellen Watkins Harper, Chester B. Himes, Zora Neale Hurston, Nella Larsen, Toni Morrison, Ann Petry, Wallace Thurman, Jean Toomer, Frank J. Webb, Richard Wright, and Frank Yerby. Critical Introductions by Hazel V. Carby, John Charles Gerald, Early Hazel Arnett Ervin, Matthew Guterl, Mae G. Henderson, George B. Hutchinson, Gene Jarrett, Carla L. Peterson, Amritjit Singh, Werner Sollors, and Jeffrey Allen Tucker. The essays are succinct, interesting, and informative. Journal of African American Studies

Baby Daddy Disorder Jameca Falconer, PhD, 2014-11-12 I see many examples of how the children have not been made a priority in many African American families. It seems that many African American men are content to produce children and then simply walk away from most, if not all, of the financial, emotional, and psychological responsibilities that serve as the foundation of parenting. Baby Daddy Disorder is a reality check on what is terribly wrong in the African American community. Families are the core of every issue that plagues our community. Alcoholism, obesity, and poor health, economic hardship, education, crime, and violence are just a few elements that need improvement within the African American community. Each one of these elements could be tackled more strategically if families were intact or if parents could work together as a team to ensure success for their children. It's been said that it takes a village to raise a child. Even if grandmother, aunts, and uncles create and work in the village, father's need to step up, man up, and get up so that they can fulfill their role in the village. Baby Daddy Disorder is a reality check on what is terribly wrong in the African American community.
