Diversity and difference in communication The Open University, This 16 hour free course explored the ways in which difference and diversity impact on the nature of communication in health and social care services From Victim to Victor to Victim Again J. O. Bass, 2004 This provocative publication is a culmination of several years of research interviews and surveys to determine the extent of racism in Thailand The initial study began in 1964 during the Viet Nam War when the author was in Thailand serving as an Industrial Missionary While there he encountered racial bias on a personal level and decided to base his Master's thesis on a study of the degree of prejudice existing in this country Prejudice not only hurts its holder and damages its victim but also creates an atmosphere of suspicion and distrust which tends to destroy all who are touched by it The question therefore arises will the lesson of America's cities also be the lesson of Bangkok Follow up observations were completed 35 years later to determine whether or not any progress had been made since the first study after which Thailand had experienced an unprecedented population growth and the absence of American military personnel Thailand of the year 2000 was positioned to be the most appropriate prototype of the kind of inclusive society that many countries only dream of becoming Between 2001 and 2002 another extensive effort involving interviews and surveys was initiated to measure the social distance between the Africans and Thais racial prejudice has a double edge It damages both its holder and its victim The prejudiced persons are hurt because they lose their ability for critical thought and react blindly in terms of stereotypes they become less Christian less Buddhist less caring and even less productive members of the Thai society as far as creative thinking and change for the best goes The victims of prejudice are hurt because they become the persons created by the false image of themselves that is projected by those prejudiced persons The results and comparisons of the author's research are described in depth in the pages of this book along with his professional analysis of the situation as it existed over the last 50 years and at the present time In 2004 the author will return to Bangkok Thailand to oversee a larger scientific study and the implementation of its findings Canadian Children's Literature, 1979 In Review, 1979

Bilingual and Multicultural Education Stan Shapson, Vincent D'Oyley, 1984 This book provides a conceptualisation of bilingual French English and multicultural education Its main purposes are to synthesise recent responses to bilingual and multicultural education to identify the issues arising out of the schools responses to these new challenges and to examine future directions for educational policy Canadian Books in Print, 1985 Canadian Books for Young People Irma McDonough, 1978 This third completely revised edition contains hundreds of new entries for a total of almost 2 000 children's books and magazines carefully selected and described by a team of children's librarians Entries are arranged by subject with reading levels indicated where necessary and are also listed in a separate author title index A list of prize winning Canadian children's books and a basic book list for librarians teachers and parents are included in this charmingly illustrated volume
