yourself With In Full Color Rachel Dole al describes the path that led her from being a child of white evangelical parents to an NAACP chapter president and respected educator and activist who identifies as Black Along the way she recounts the deep emotional bond she formed with her four adopted Black siblings the sense of belonging she felt while living in Black communities in Jackson Mississippi and Washington DC and the experiences that have shaped her along the way Her story is nuanced and complex and in the process of telling it she forces us to consider race in an entirely new light not as a biological imperative but as a function of the experiences we have the culture we embrace and ultimately the identity we choose
