Looking After Children With Difficult:

Caring for Children with Complex Needs in the Community Jean Teare, 2009-01-22 Caring for the Child with Complex Needs in Community Settings provides a valuable overview of the key factors relating to caring for children with complex and continuing care needs. Despite its frequent and increasing use, complex care needs is a term without an agreed definition. This shortfall of knowledge is addressed in this book through critical discussion of evidence based research and current health, social and education policy. It brings together the latest knowledge into one text providing practitioners with the crucial information needed when working with this diverse and broad group of children. Caring for the Child with Complex Needs in Community Settings explores caring for technology dependent children who require respiratory assistance, caring for children who require home enteral tube feeds and caring for children with complex disabilities. It looks at multi agency care, respite care for families, social service support and educational support of children with complex needs. Practitioners from health, social services and education backgrounds have contributed to the chapters using case studies, while a parent of a child with complex needs has provided a personal view of caring. This accessible and practical text provides core knowledge and vital insight required for successful delivery of community care for children with complex and continuing care needs. A Practical Guide to Caring for Children and Teenagers with Attachment Difficulties Chris Taylor, 2010 It explains what attachment is, what the different patterns look like in children and young people, how early attachment experiences affect their lives and how this understanding can help childcare workers to develop therapeutic ways of caring. An essential book for professionals such as residential carers, social workers and foster carers. Children with Complex and Continuing Health Needs Jaqui Hewitt-Taylor, 2007-11-15 Focusing on the real life experiences of children and their families, this book provides valuable insight into living with complex and continuing health needs. The author highlights the importance of seeing each child as an individual with the same rights and needs as any other person rather than defining them by their health condition. How to Help Children and Young People with Complex Behavioural Difficulties Ted Cole, Barbara Knowles, Joan Pritchard, 2010-09-01 The authors examine the underlying causes of BESD and discuss research based theory. They offer a range of interventions and therapies for use in and out of school and encourage practitioners to develop skills such as engaging with parents, identifying special educational needs and setting constructive boundaries. Looking After Children Raymond A. Lemay, Hayat Ghazal, 2007 Looking After Children is an assessment and planning approach for children and youth in out of home care, first developed in the UK and since 1997 adapted and used increasingly in Canada, particularly in Ontario. The approach is developmental and strengths based. The Assessment and Action Record (AAR), the core clinical tool, provides the basis for an in depth assessment interview which then leads to a comprehensive care plan. The AAR is computerized and provides the possibility of data aggregation and the recent revision allows for comparability among Canadian children as assessed by the National Longitudinal Survey of Children and Youth. Looking After Children A

Practitioner s Guide includes training material that will help practitioners understand and put the LAC approach and tools to effective use Published in English Observing Children with Attachment Difficulties in Preschool Settings Ann Frost,Jane Fain,Sian Templeton,Eleanor Durrant,Kim S. Golding,2012-11-15 This child observation tool has been designed to help structure observations of children with emotional and behavioural difficulties in early years settings Simple checklists and diagrams help to identify particular behavioural patterns and attachment issues as well as appropriate interventions

Supporting Children with Learning Difficulties Christine Turner,2011-08-11 How do you teach history to a child who can t remember what she had for dinner What difference will it make to a child s counting skills if you place the objects in a line rather than dropped randomly on the table Will breaking down a task into smaller steps help a young person learn how to dress himself Children with learning disabilities do not follow set patterns of learning and yet often they are expected to learn in the same way as their non disabled peers Christine Turner draws on 25 years experience gained from teaching children with severe profound and multiple disabilities to provide an introduction to learning disabilities and the effect they have on the individual and the family She proposes holistic strategies to ensure that every child makes progress regardless of the extent of their disability All aspects of learning from the simplest forms of non verbal communication to the way ICT can motivate and inspire are explored in this practical and informal guide for anyone wanting to support a child with learning difficulties Understanding family and friends care: the relationship between need, support and legal status ,

The Handbook of Complex Trauma and Dissociation in Children Ana M. Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science, Socioemotional Processes, 2015-04-06 The essential reference for human development theory updated and reconceptualized. The Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science a four volume reference is the field defining work to which all others are compared. First published in 1946 and now in its Seventh Edition the Handbook has long been considered the definitive guide to the field of developmental science. Volume 3 Social Emotional and Personality Development presents up to date knowledge and theoretical understanding of the several facets of social emotional and personality processes. The volume emphasizes that any specific processes function or behavior discussed in the volume co occurs alongside and is inextricably affected by the dozens of other processes functions or behaviors that are the focus of other researchers work. As a result the volume underscores the importance of a focus on the whole developing child and his or her sociocultural and historical environment. Understand the multiple processes that are interrelated in personality development. Discover the individual cultural social and economic processes that contribute to the social emotional and personality development of individuals. Learn about the several individual and contextual contributions to the development of such facets of the individual as morality spirituality or aggressive violent behavior. Study the processes that contribute to the development of gender sexuality motivation and social engagement. The scholarship within this volume and as well across the four volumes of this edition illustrate that developmental science is in the midst of a very exciting period There is a paradigm shift that involves increasingly greater understanding of how to describe explain and optimize the course of human life for diverse individuals living within diverse contexts This Handbook is the definitive reference for educators policy makers researchers students and practitioners in human development psychology sociology anthropology and neuroscience Practical Strategies for Individual Behaviour Difficulties Geraldine Mitchell,2014-02-24 Primary and secondary teachers who experience difficult behaviour from young children in their classrooms will welcome this handbook which encourages an objective approach to tackling behaviour problems Authority in Social Casework Robert Foren,Royston Bailey,2014-05-17 Authority in Social Casework
