Foreign Agricultural Economic Report United States Department of Agriculture. Economic Research Service, 1961
Foreign Agricultural Economic Report, 1974     Bulletin, 1924     New Zealand Poultry Journal, 1926     The Geology of the Huntly-Kawhia Subdivision Pirongia and Hauraki Divisions John Henderson, 1926     The Geology of the Huntly-Kawhia Subdivision, Pirongia and Hauraki Division John Henderson, Leslie Issott Grange, M. Ongley, Percy Gates Morgan, Eric Ogilvy Macpherson, W. Gibson, 1926     New Zealand in the League of Nations Gerald Chaudron, 2011-11-08
When New Zealand's prime minister William Massey joined other heads of British Empire countries in signing the 1919 Treaty of Versailles to end World War I and join the League of Nations he did not regard the act as a declaration of independence. On the contrary while Canadian and South African leaders saw membership in the league as a rite of passage towards greater autonomy New Zealand's leader viewed it as an unwelcome burden and a potential threat to the British Empire. This history of New Zealand's relations with the League of Nations from its inception in 1920 to its demise in 1946 follows the government's transformation in attitude from its initial hostility to detached acceptance and finally passionate support in the late 1930s. By chronicling this complex movement the book traces New Zealand's first tiny halting steps towards developing its own foreign policy.     The Bookseller, 1912 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom

Brands, Geographical Origin, and the Global Economy David M. Higgins, 2018-05-26 Indications of geographic origin for foodstuffs and manufactures have become an important source of brand value since the beginnings of globalization during the late nineteenth century. In this work David M Higgins explores the early nineteenth century business campaigns to secure national and international protection of geographic brands. He shows how these efforts culminated in the introduction of legal protocols which protect such brands including Champagne, Sheffield, Swiss made watches and Made in the USA. Higgins explores the major themes surrounding these indications tying in the history of global marketing and the relevant laws on intellectual property. He also questions the effectiveness of European Union policy to promote regional and local foods and why such initiatives brought the EU in conflict with North America especially the US. He extends the study with a reflection on contemporary issues affecting globalization, intellectual property, less developed countries and supply chains.
New Zealand Beekeepers' Journal, 1917     Mining and Scientific Press, 1915     Remaking New Zealand and Australian Economic Policy Shaun Goldfinch, 2000 During the 1980s and early 1990s both Australia and New Zealand extensively deregulated their economies moving to become amongst the most liberal economies in the OECD. Shaun Goldfinch interviewed more than 180 leading policy makers in Australia and New Zealand including former prime ministers, ministers of finance, treasurers, public servants and other policy elites and examined primary government sources to demonstrate the reasons and processes involved in this remarkable period of economic reform This major comparative study sheds new light on economic policy making and change including the role of economic ideas and the importance of institutions and policy communities It contrasts the crash through approach that characterised reform in New Zealand with the bargained consensus that underpinned changes in Australia Finally it asks the critical question Has the New Zealand approach to policy change delivered better policy outcomes Modern Refrigeration and Air Conditioning ,1911 Cold Storage and Ice Trades Review ,1911 New Zealand in World Affairs IV 1990-2005 Roderic Alley,New Zealand Institute of International Affairs,2007 At the beginning of 1990 the Berlin Wall had just fallen few believed that there was any serious threat to the environment 9 11 was just any date the Pacific was seen largely as an idyllic and stable region and Iraq was just another Middle Eastern state By 2005 Iraq meant two wars the Cold War had been replaced by the war on terror East Timor Bougainville Fiji and the Solomons were all synonyms for strife and instability in the region and sustainability global warming and climate change were everyday topics New Zealand in World Affairs IV surveys the period 1990-2005 provides a record of New Zealand's major international preoccupations describes how they were officially handled and makes assessments of how effectively the challenges were interpreted and acted upon This authoritative collection of essays the fourth in a series commissioned by the New Zealand Institute of International Affairs completes a survey of New Zealand's foreign relations since World War II Hardware & Machinery ,1928 Bibliography of Agriculture ,1969-08
